

PRAYER FOR FLAG RAISING CEREMONY

January 20, 2020

Legislative Department

Our Gracious Heavenly Father. We praise and thank You for calling us to be Your people. We thank You for the times of triumph despite the ongoing challenges, knowing You have been with us always.

Have mercy for our failures, Lord, and make us into a people who will not forget You. Give us the grace to grow in love, service and obedience to Your laws.

We pray for our province - strengthen and defend us in our daily battles. Help us to fight for our province by being good citizens and being part of the solution. Keep safe our families and the Godly values we hold dear.

We pray for our people - that we may grow united in love and appreciation.

May we extend a hand to each other in selfless giving even when we feel we are the ones in need.

We pray for our leaders - give them Your heart and wisdom to govern humbly and justly. Make them worthy examples of righteousness for the whole citizenry to emulate.

We pray that You bless and prosper the fruits of our land and the works of our hands, that all of these may benefit your people in the province.

We claim Your victory in Our land and declare You as God of our province for blessed is the one who calls upon Your name. All of these things we ask, In the mighty name of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Morning Prayers During Flag Raising Ceremony:

Strangers in a Stranger Land John B. Simon, 2019-08-27 What did it feel like to be an openly Jewish soldier fighting alongside German troops in WWII Could a Jewish nurse work safely in a field hospital operating theater under the supervision of German army doctors Several hundred members of Finland's tiny Jewish community found themselves in absurd situations like this yet not a single one was harmed by the Germans or deported to concentration or extermination camps In fact Finland was the only European country fighting on either side in WWII that lost not a single Jewish citizen to the Nazis Final Solution Strangers in a Stranger Land explores the unique dilemma of Finland's Jews in the form of a meticulously researched novel Where did these immigrant Jews the last in Europe to achieve citizenship status come from What was life like from their arrival in Finland in the early nineteenth century to the time when their grandchildren perversely found themselves on the wrong side of WWII And how could young lovers plan for the future when not only their enemies but also their country's allies threatened their very existence Seven years researching Finland's National Archives plus numerous in depth interviews with surviving Finnish Jewish war veterans provide the background for a narrative exploration of love friendship and commitment but also uncertainty and terror under circumstances that were unique in the annals of The Good War The novel's protagonists Benjamin David and Rachel adopt varying survival strategies as they struggle with involvement in a brutal conflict and questions posed by their dual loyalty as Finnish citizens and Zionists committed to the creation of a Jewish homeland Tensions mount as the three young adults painfully work through a relationship love triangle and try to fulfill their commitments as both Jews and Finns while their country desperately seeks to extricate itself from an unwinnable war

Memory, Place and Identity Danielle Drozdowski, Sarah De Nardi, Emma Waterton, 2016-05-20 This book bridges theoretical gaps that exist between the meta concepts of memory place and identity by positioning its lens on the emplaced practices of commemoration and the remembrance of war and conflict This book examines how diverse publics relate to their wartime histories through engagements with everyday collective memories in differing places Specifically addressing questions of place making displacement and identity contributions shed new light on the processes of commemoration of war in everyday urban spaces and within generations of families and national communities Contributions seek to clarify how we connect with memories and places of war and conflict The spatial and narrative manifestations of attempts to contextualise wartime memories of loss trauma conflict victory and suffering are refracted through the roles played by emotion and identity construction in the shaping of post war remembrances This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective with insights from history memory studies social psychology cultural and urban geography to contextualise memories of war and their use by national governments perpetrators victims and in family histories

A Priest's Guide for the Great Festival Aghoraśivācārya, 2010 The Mahotsavavidhi a twelfth century Sanskrit text provides detailed guidelines for a Saiva temple priest in performing a nine day great festival for the god Siva The author

Aghorasiva is one of the most esteemed and influential authors in the Saiva Siddhanta school and his lengthy work on ritual procedures Kriyakramadyotika of which the Mahotsavavidhi is a part is by all accounts the Agama work most employed by modern temple priests and pious Saivas in their practice of worship Richard Davis's translation of this important text is the first translation into a European language of any medieval work on temple festivals Because the text was intended for an expert audience of working twelfth century priests Aghorasiva employs a highly technical idiom For that reason Davis annotates his translation extensively with explanations and expansions drawn from other Agama works There have been numerous studies of temple festivals and processions based on ethnographic observations and on recent historical data but the historical study of this dramatic religious practice during earlier periods has relied on speculation Davis's groundbreaking volume will provide a new foundation for the study of the history of South Indian temple festivals as a cultural practice

Voices in the Mind RM Jarman, 2010-10-29 Voices in the Mind is a miscellany of thirteen stories on a wide diversity of themes each representing a separate voice in the mind of the author The first half of the book comprises twelve pieces of typical short story length These lead into the second half which is taken up by the novella Then there was Harvey This is a saga about a rather wicked but ultimately lovable schoolboy who finds himself possessed of a unique kind of power that enables him to inflict a rare and potentially deadly form of torture upon the persons of the forces of authority at his alma mater Amongst the selection you will find humour drama suspense irony and moments of almost heart breaking pathos

To the Flag Richard J. Ellis, 2005-04-01 For over one hundred years it has been deeply ingrained in American culture Saluting the flag in public schools began as part of a national effort to Americanize immigrants its final six words imbuing it with universal hope and breathtaking power Now Richard Ellis unfurls the fascinating history of the Pledge of Allegiance and of the debates and controversies that have sometimes surrounded it For anyone who has ever recited those thirty one words To the Flag provides an unprecedented historical perspective on recent challenges to the Pledge As engaging as it is informative it traces the story from the Pledge's composition by Francis Bellamy in 1892 up to the Supreme Court's action in 2004 regarding atheist Michael Newdow's objection to the words under God Ellis is especially good at highlighting aspects of this story that might not be familiar to most readers the schoolhouse flag movement the codification of the Pledge at the First National Flag Conference in 1923 changing styles of salute and the uses of the Pledge to quell public concerns over sundry strains of radicalism Created against the backdrop of rapid immigration the Pledge has continued for over a century to be injected into American politics at times of heightened anxiety over the meaning of our national identity Ellis analyzes the text of the Pledge to tell how the very words indivisible and allegiance were intended to invoke Civil War sentiments and how with liberty and justice for all forms a capsule expression of the American creed He also examines the introduction of under God as an anti Communist declaration in the 1950s demonstrating that the phrase is not mere ceremonial Deism but rather a profound expression of what has been called America's civil religion The Pledge has inspired millions but has also been used to promote conformity and silence dissent indeed its daily recitation in schools and legislatures tells us as much about our anxieties as a nation as it does about our highest ideals Ellis reveals how for over a century those who have been most fearful about threats to our national identity have often been most insistent on the importance of patriotic rituals Indeed by addressing this inescapable paradox of our civic life Ellis opens a new and unexpected window on the American soul

Hui Muslims in the Shaping of Modern China Bin CHEN,2025-11-04 Chen examines the Chinese Nationalist government s distinctive support for private Muslim teachers schools between the 1920s and 1940s and explores the complex relationship between these institutions and the Chinese state during the Republican period In 1933 the government issued the Teachers Schools Regulations mandating that all teachers schools be state run However the Nationalists viewed private Muslim teachers schools as valuable allies in their efforts to assert influence in China s Muslim dominated northwestern frontier region and deliberately refrained from enforcing the 1933 Teachers Schools Regulations on them Instead the government applied the 1933 Amended Private Schools Regulations which did not specifically address teachers schools to govern Muslim teachers schools By charting the evolving dynamics between the Nationalist state and Chinese Hui Muslims this book reevaluates the Hui Muslims role in shaping modern China Offering crucial context on the role of Islam in modern China this book is a valuable resource for scholars and students of Chinese history as well as for policymakers and journalists interested in religion in China
