Invisible Man, The: Literary Touchstone Classic Herbert George Wells, 2006

This Prestwick House Literary Touchstone Classic includes a glossary and reader's notes to help the modern reader understand Wells' commentary on this all too human desire. H. G. Wells' classic The Invisible Man is an artful combination of a psychological thriller and science fiction novel. A young scientist who discovers the secret of invisibility feels initial joy at his newfound freedoms and abilities but quickly turns to despair when he realizes the many things he has sacrificed in the pursuit of science. While he struggles to create the formula that will restore his visibility and his connection to other people, murder and mayhem ensue. The Invisible Man is a fascinating account of humanity's obsession with science and the unforeseen consequences that arise from reckless experimentation. The novel has been captivating readers for well over a century and it is sure to remain a timeless portrayal of the human desire to overcome the laws of nature and gain power.

Made in U.S.A. takes a new look at American art of the 1950s and 1960s and shows us how American it was. This is a provocative study of those artists who appropriated everyday images from the world of mass media and suburban living and forced their viewers into a sometimes witty, sometimes bittersweet confrontation with the realities of living in late twentieth-century America.
