In the increasingly data swamped world of education data literacy is no longer a desirable skill it is essential Databusting for Schools is part guide through the complexities uses and limitations of data and part challenge to those who too readily make assumptions and draw conclusions This is an important book James Pembroke independent data analyst Data rules schools and ignorance is far from bliss From assessment results to questioning educational claims there is a growing need to understand the numbers used in education Education data blogger and teacher Richard Selfridge aka Jack Marwood unravels the complexities of dealing with educational data and explains statistics in an understandable everyday way relevant to your classroom and your school He will take you through all you need to know about data and statistics in education including Where does education data come from The what why and how of numbers Understanding different types of graphs and how to use them How to play around with data to see the bigger picture How to interpret data does one thing really lead to another Using data to inform school policy A must read for all teachers school leaders data managers school governors and anyone in education who has ever looked at statistical data and broken out into a cold sweat Richard Selfridge is a primary school teacher and writer on education He is author of the popular datablog Icing on the Cake and tweets under the sometime pseudonym Jack_Marwood

Evidence Check 1 Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Select Committee on Science and Technology, 2009 This report HCP 44 session 2009 10 ISBN 9780215542663 from the Science and Technology Committee looks at literacy programmes evidence check and concludes that expectations by the Department for Children Schools and Families of the quality of the evidence base for reading programmes are worryingly low It urges the Government to commission randomised controlled trials RCTs The Committee also states it is particularly concerned about the quality of evidence demonstrating cost effectiveness of different programmes and further recommends that the Government reviews its guidelines on RCT design it says even Wikipedia is more thorough and informative The Committee also concludes that the Government's focus on early literacy interventions and phonics based teaching is based on the best available evidence the use of Reading Recovery is based on a lower quality of evidence than the Committee is comfortable with and that the decision to introduce Reading Recovery nationally is not evidence based The Committee further expressed alarm that there was a complete lack of randomised controlled trials using standardised test scores for the Reading Recovery programme in the UK school system before national implementation of the programme

Adopting the Beat of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within Maths Test Papers Ks3 2010
