framework conjoining elements of cooperation and integration with the EU's six eastern neighbours i.e. Ukraine, Belarus, Moldova, Georgia, Armenia, and Azerbaijan turned ten years. This anniversary in conjunction with repeatedly voiced critique by scholars and policy makers alike regarding the framework's effectiveness and utility led the EU to submit the EaP to a fundamental auditing and revision. Structured around both enduring and emerging issues in the broader EU Eastern neighbourhood framework, this book provides a retrospective analysis of key structural and relational challenges unfolding, regional dynamics, distinctive forms of bilateral/multilateral engagement, whilst also offering a critical perspective on the contested future relations between the EU and its Eastern neighbours. Looking backwards and providing a critical and thorough assessment of the first ten years of the EaP in practice, this book thinks forward and gauges its many potential future avenues. This comes at a crucial moment as the EU and its six Eastern neighbours are in search of new and mutually acceptable forms of association.

Democracy, Federalism, the European Revolution, and Global Governance Andrea Bosco, 2020-06-10. The European Union is facing today the greatest crisis since its creation. Brexit could mean not only the reversal of its steady enlargement from 6 to 28 member states but also the beginning of an inexorable decline leading to its disintegration. However, few today seem to recollect that it was precisely the British who were the first to promulgate the political culture which inspired the European Union's construction: democracy and federalism, and the first who tried to realise in June 1940 a European federation on the basis of an Anglo-French union. This volume traces the fundamental stages of the European unification process, placing it in relation to the wider process of world economic and political integration. In particular, it analyses the historical significance of the European Revolution which is identified in the overcoming of the nation-state, namely the modern political formula which institutionalised the political division of mankind and the birth of the first truly international state. The universal historical significance of the European Revolution lies in its exportability, as for the other great European revolutions, and therefore its potential as progressively extensible to all the states of the planet. Europe was indeed the first region of the world where the barriers between national states fell and a post-national political identity emerged complementary to national political identities. It is in fact in the context of the European Union that democracy beyond the borders of the nation-state has first been realized, constituting a guiding principle for global governance.

International Cooperation in the Development of Russia's Far East and Siberia J. Huang, A. Korolev, 2015-04-30. The contributors, recognized experts from Russia, China, South Korea, Japan, Norway, and Singapore, analyze political, economic, social, and geostrategic roadblocks in the Russia-Asia-Pacific relations, offering directions for further development.

How Think Tanks Shape Social Development Policies James G. McGann, Anna Viden, Jillian Rafferty, 2014-05-27. The Neighbours of the European Union's Neighbours

Sieglinde Gstöhl, Erwan Lannon, 2016-02-24 Should the European Neighbourhood Policy stop at the borders of the European Union's immediate neighbouring countries This book is the first full length study of the neighbours of the EU's neighbours a concept originally introduced by the European Commission with reference to Saharan Africa the Middle East and Central Asia These regions in the EU's broader neighbourhood are often perceived as an arc of crisis from which manifold challenges emanate for Europe This timely book takes stock of the state of the EU's cooperation with the neighbours of its neighbours and explores how the concept might help promote security stability and prosperity beyond the countries which are formally part of the European Neighbourhood Policy How can the EU create bridges between these regions What instruments does the EU have at its disposal and how can it link them in order to respond to the challenges and overcome the current fragmentation One of the conclusions is the suggestion to consider a pragmatic EU Strategy for the Neighbours of its Neighbours which addresses the needs of the broader EU neighbourhood in a more systematic and consistent manner and helps transform in the long run the arc of crisis into another ring of friends
