

Eulogy for Mom

Today we honor the life of my mom. She was a truly amazing woman who was the kindest and most loving person in the world.

I can honestly say she was my best friend and to try and do justice right her in this short eulogy will be impossible. She dedicated her life to family and making sure we were supported in whatever we did and that we never felt anything other than loved.

She sacrificed more than I'll ever know and even when she was putting everyone else before herself she still made time to listen to all our problems.

Everyone who was fortunate enough to know her was in awe of everything she achieved. And the warmth and happiness she brought to us cannot be overstated.

I loved her more than words could possibly say and she will live on in my heart forever more

Mothers of the Wise and Good Jabez Burns, 1850 Erika Landau's Contribution to the History of Gifted Education
Hanna David, 2025-06-23 This book describes some of the most critical issues in gifted education i.e. gender inequity concerning giftedness examinations and the boys girls ratio The book also discusses the background of the gifted child's family including their parents education and number of their siblings The book's findings are based on quantitative studies concerning 5-15 year old gifted children participating at the Erika Landau Institute for Gifted and Creative Children and Youths in Tel Aviv Israel from 1968 until 2003 It discusses aspects such as the advantages of affirmative action standards in gifted education because girls who score lower than boys on the admission test to a gifted program usually have better social skills persistence and fine motor skills and thus integrate successfully in a gifted group with boys of higher intelligence The book's second part addresses Landau's academic work in multiple languages and offers a critique that helps educators and mental health experts build gifted programs
