Harmon,Marilyn J. Wilson,2012-09-10 Beyond Grammar Language Power and the Classroom asks readers to think about the power of words the power of language attitudes and the power of language policies as they play out in communities in educational institutions and in their own lives as individuals teachers and participants in the larger community Each chapter provides extended discussion of a set of critical language issues that directly affect students in classrooms the political nature of language the power of words hate language and bullying gender and language dialects and language policies Written for pre service and practicing teachers this text addresses how teachers can alert students to the realities of language and power removing language study from a neutral corner to situate it within the context of political social and cultural issues Developing a critical pedagogy about language instruction can help educators understand that classrooms can either maintain existing inequity or address and diminish inequity through critical language study A common framework structures the chapters of the text Each chapter begins with an overview of the language issue in question and includes references for further research and for classroom use and provides applications for classroom teachers Numerous references to the popular press and the breadth of language issues found therein foreground current thought on socio cultural language issues attitudes standards and policies found in the culture s at large References to current and recent events illustrate the language issue s importance cartoons address the issue and brief For Thought activities illustrate the point being discussed and extend the reader s knowledge and awareness Personal Explorations ask readers to go beyond the text to develop further understanding Teaching Explorations ask teachers to apply chapter content to teaching situations Beyond Grammar Language Power and the Classroom is intendedfor undergraduate and master s level courses that address literacy education linguistics and issues of language and culture   Jpse The Society for the Philosophical Study of Education,2012-02-08 The essays in this first volume of The Journal for the Philosophical Study of Education follow an unusual flow between the personal and social touching on the experience of teaching and the perspectives of recognized philosophers of education and leading to broader considerations of policy discourse in education and educational administration Thus we go from personal explorations of value and meaning Fontaine to studies of the effects of social policy and sociopolitical concerns on education Howell Loftin to explorations of teaching A Johnston O Neill to the significance of the works of particular philosophers and or thinkers G Johnston Kim to international educational discourse and administrative practice Friedrich and Lee Bradbury Halbur and Halbur   Toward Translingual Realities in Composition Nancy Bou Ayash,2019-09-26 Toward Translingual Realities in Composition is a multiyear critical ethnographic study of first year writing programs in Lebanon and Washington State a country where English is not the sole language of instruction and a state in which English is entirely dominant to examine the multiple and often contradictory natures forces and manifestations of language ideologies The book is a practical useful way of seriously engaging with alternative ways of thinking doing and learning academic English literacies Translingualism work has concentrated on critiquing monolingual and multilingual notions of language but it is only beginning to examine translingual enactments in writing programs and classrooms Focusing on language representations and practices at both the macro and micro levels author Nancy Bou Ayash places the study and teaching of university level writing in the context of the globalization and pluralization of English es and other languages Individual chapters feature various studies that Bou Ayash brings together to address how students act as agents in marshaling their language practices and resources and shows a deliberate translingual intervention that complicates and enriches students assumptions about language and writing Her findings about writing programs instructors and students are detailed multidimensional and complex A substantial contribution to growing translingual scholarship in the field of composition studies Toward Translingual Realities in Composition offers insights into how writing teacher scholars and writing program administrators can more productively intervene in local postmonolingual tensions and contradictions at the level of language representations and practices through actively and persistently reworking the design and enactment of their curricula pedagogies assessments teacher training programs and campus wide partnerships Intersections of Peace and Language Studies Erin A. Mikulec,Sai Bhatawadekar,Cuhullan Tsuyoshi McGivern,Paul Chamness Iida,2022-01-01 Readings in Language Studies Volume 7 Intersections of Peace and Language Studies features international contributions that represent state of the field reviews multi disciplinary perspectives theory driven syntheses of current scholarship reports of new empirical research reflections on pedagogical practices and critical discussions of major topics centered on the intersection of language studies and peace Consistent with the mission of ISLS the collection of 13 chapters in this volume seeks to bridge these arbitrary disciplinary territories and provide a forum for both theoretical and empirical research from existing and emergent research methodologies for exploring the relationships among language power discourses and social practices Language and peace are in themselves incredibly complex concepts They are simultaneously interpersonal in their function and effect as well as intimately personal in their experience From everyday communication to the pragmatics of world diplomacy from embracing a foreign culture to embarking upon a journey of self awareness language and peace are inseparably intertwined To reveal their myriad interconnections in local and global contexts is a limitless task nevertheless we attempt to bring you a few glimpses from far corners of the world It is also a linguistic and postcolonial mission of this society and the book series to publish the voices of non native speakers of English Decolonizing the academic enterprise is part of our commitment to diversity Deaf Empowerment Katherine A. Jankowski,1997 This book makes a strong case for distinguishing the Deaf movement from social movements occurring in the disability community It should be read by anyone who wants to know why this political and ideological split between deaf people and people with other types of physical impairments is occurring

Music, Performance and African Identities Toyin Falola,Tyler Fleming,2012-03-15 Cutting across countries genres and time periods this volume explores topics ranging from hip hop s influence on Maasai identity in current day Tanzania to jazz in Bulawayo during the interwar years using music to tell a larger story about the cultures and societies of Africa

Exploring Language GOSHGARIAN,2001-11-01 Performance on Behalf of the Environment Richard D. Besel,Jnan A. Blau,2013-11-26 Human degradation of the environment has been documented by scholars across a range of disciplines the global temperature of the planet continues to rise abandoned industrial sites stain once vibrant communities and questions about the purity of our water and foods linger In the shadow of these material conditions concerned citizens have reacted by issuing critiques against careless consumerism and excessive lifestyles Their hope is to illustrate and inspire alternative ways of living As part of such efforts and activism some have turned to performance as a means to investigate matters further pose challenges and questions and enact new ways of being and thinking in a globalized world Performance on Behalf of the Environment is a collection of essays from a diverse group of scholars that explore critically the strengths limitations and processes of what can be termed environmental performances Anita Whitney, Louis Brandeis, and the First Amendment Haig A. Bosmajian,2010 Metaphor and Reason in Judicial Opinions Haig A. Bosmajian,1992 While much has been written on the use of metaphor in literature and religion science and philosophy few articles and no books have discussed its function in legal opinions To the public judges handing down judicial decisions present arguments derived through rational discourse and literal language Yet as Judge Richard Posner has pointed out rhetorical power counts for a lot in law Science not to mention everyday thought is influenced by metaphors Why shouldn t law be Haig Bosmajian examines the crucial role of the trope metaphors personifications metonymies in argumentation and reveals the surprisingly important place that figurative nonliteral language holds in judicial decision making Focusing on the specific genre of the legal opinion Professor Bosmajian discusses the question of why we have judicial opinions at all and the importance of style in them He then looks at specific well known figures of speech such as the wall of separation between church and state justice personified as a female or the Constitution as color blind explaining why they are not straight forward statements of legal fact but examples of the ways tropes are used in legal language More Verbal Self-Defense Suzette Haden Elgin,1991-06 Continues The gentle art of verbal self defense 1980 Technology and English Studies James A. Inman,Beth L. Hewett,2020-07-24 In scholarship about technology and English studies there are a number of first person narratives that suggest what may be termed traditional professional paths That is they chronicle the positive influence of a particular technology class professor or publication and suggest that it inspired a distinct and rewarding professional path What is missing is the rest of the story alternate ways that individuals have come to do work in technology and English studies and analysis of what this means for paths others might pursue Technology and English Studies Innovative Professional Paths meets this need The volume begins with definitions of its three central terms technology English Studies and professional paths Chapters are organized in four sections reflecting both a chronological progression and thematic professional development The Past as the Future Searching the Academy Pushing Boundaries and Forging Beyond As a forerunner in addressing professionalization across the domains that comprise technology and English studies it will prove foundational for many readers with non traditional or otherwise alternate backgrounds who are working out what professional paths might be available to them Technology and English Studies Innovative Professional Paths is an important professional development resource for professors instructors and graduate students across the field of English studies including rhetoric and composition computers and writing computer assisted language learning literary and linguistic computing literary studies English education technical communication linguistics writing centers second language education ESL and creative writing The Racial Dimensions of Language Discrimination Against International Teaching Assistants and a Proposed Program for Reducing Discrimination on Campus Crystal Ann Yamazaki,2010 Building Sustainable Futures for Adult Learners Jennifer K. Holtz,Stephen B. Springer,Carrie J. Boden,2014-10-01 Building Sustainable Futures for Adult Learners is an edited and refereed collection of papers published in conjunction with the joint Adult Higher Educational Alliance AHEA and American Association of Adult and Continuing Education Conferences AAACE This book is the third in a series of scholarly publications associated with the annual AHEA conference The book is arranged thematically according to the topics of submissions Building Sustainable Futures is important because it fills a unique niche in the field of adult education extends the scope of AHEA to a larger audience and offers a current volume for scholars and practitioners based on both research and practice based research
