Love at First Sighting Mallory Marlowe,2025-08-12 A chance at love might not be out of this world in this astronomically charming romantic comedy from the USA Today bestselling author of Love and Other Conspiracies Los Angeles social media influencer El Martin seems to have a picture perfect life But what El wants more than anything is to find something real to make her heart race in a way it hasn't in years. She doesn't expect that feeling to come from capturing footage of an unidentified flying thing much less from the charming Man in Black who keeps following her around. Agent Carter Brody is trying his best to keep the Private Intelligence Sector afloat by dragging their hopelessly out of date office into this century even though what he really wants to do is follow in his father's footsteps by identifying and hiding extraterrestrial sightings. He gets his chance after being assigned to El's case and is stopped in his tracks not only by her ingenuity and confidence but also by an unnerving coincidence her sighting looks eerily like what Carter himself saw right before a family tragedy. The deeper El and Carter fall into the mystery the harder it is for them to ignore their growing chemistry as their own alien feelings become dangerously terrestrial. Dengue Boy Michel Nieva, 2025-02-04. For fans of David Cronenberg's films and lovers of Kafka this gaucho punk sci-fi novel set in 2197 offers an explosive interpretation of an ultra-capitalistic society on the brink of climate collapse. The protagonist of this story has no understanding of the words winter, cold or snow because he has never experienced the phenomena they describe. We find ourselves in Victorica a province of La Pampa, Argentina some time after 2197 the year in which the last of the Antarctic icecaps melted and an unprecedented climate catastrophe ensued radically transforming the landscape of the region into a Caribbean Pampas. It is here that the Dengue Child grows up a mutant mix of child and mosquito the result of crazy experimenting driven by ultra-capitalistic corporations racing against each other to own viruses and their cures destroying even their very own children's existence to cash in on the stock exchange. Another of the surprising effects of the thaw is the appearance of powerful telepathic pebbles from the bowels of the earth that seem to encapsulate the world's original wisdom and which are the subject of lucrative smuggling. Meanwhile the wealthy of the region chose to cruise around on ships where they can experience ice skating and hand carve ice from valuable remains of glaciers. In their ultra air conditioned homes their kids play Indians vs Christians a brutal video game set in the historical 19th century. The future according to Michel Nieva looks frenetic and shocking. This is one of the most exciting literary voices emerging from Argentina packing punches in a deeply intelligent informed and humorous prose which takes root in Latin American storytelling and sci-fi tradition. INDIGO VOSS K. Leigh, 2023-04-15. In 1997 New York City a petty criminal named Alex Voss is about to die via bullet shot right between the eyes by his criminal employer Boris. But was he really a petty criminal or something even stranger? As all roads lead to death he recounts his tragic life one last time: excess, suffering, rock and roll, losing his mind and failing at being a true hero. There's no escape from his tragic ending. At least that's how it's meant to play out. As events fail to line up is Alex's mind breaking the fourth wall has he finally succumbed to madness or did a deus ex machina from the future save him from himself? It might just be all three actually. Extraterrestrial Sex Fetish Superverb 32C Inc, 2001. Fiction. Live by Your Fucking Rules Edy Bravo,2021-03-08 What if you could live life YOUR way Very often and without realizing it we go through life adopting rules conditioning and shoulds which remain as part of our behavior our life tends to inertia when we are young we normally take a path choose a destination and very rarely we get out of it or question it in depth until most of our time on this earth has passed it is never too late to change but it is better to realize it early and start living from what we really want and not from what we have been told we have to do or where consumerism tells us that life is better Happiness does not come disguised as Louis Vuitton It is about enjoying life what we are going to do while we are here and how we can more fully enjoy our short but beautiful existence living the life we want and not the one we think we have to live In this book I will talk with you about 3 fundamental points to be able to start living your life with intention on purpose and from a place of creation and not of simple administration The characters of life We adopt and adapt characteristics of our environment and people of influence over whom we create characters that help us survive or belong to certain social circles Many times we do it subconsciously the idea of this book is to help you recognize these characters bring them to your consciousness and start creating them on purpose and not as a mere automatic response Re signify your story Our stories often define and limit us create chains that bind us and do not allow us to move beyond what is expected of us what we believe is possible and what we have experienced in the past In this book I will talk to you about the methods that I have personally used and some other strategies to change the meaning of your life stories and recover the natural role of hero or heroine in your own story I will show you how those chains were not tied to anything Our rules We create rules around our behavior and that of other people many of which we adopt since we were little and carry them through life marking the way of how things should be how we should behave and behave how others have to act Many of these rules come from our environment and have been passed from generation to generation without anyone really asking about their origin or their real usefulness In this book I want to invite you to throw away readapt and revise those old rules and to discover the tools of life that we also have forgotten in the subconscious About the author My name is Edy Bravo and I write this book because I think it is necessary at least I needed it a few years ago I learned the hard way what it means to sacrifice yourself to please others adopt new rules and beliefs in order to belong and feel included This is not my first book the first was about my spiritual concepts of everyday things The Age of Consciousness not a single rudeness the second a novel IMPERIUM The Awakening an action thriller with a story very good or at least I liked it a lot and this is my third book but it is the first that I write without self censorship where rudeness abounds there are jokes and I take it much more relax this is where I am 100% me but everything has a reason as you will discover in this book my real me was crouched hidden behind many rules masks characters and stories that today do not make sense Abbreviations Dictionary Dean A.

A frequent complaint against contemporary American fiction is that too often it puts off readers in ways they find difficult to fathom. Books such as Bret Easton Ellis's American Psycho, Katherine Dunn's Geek Love, and Don DeLillo's Underworld seem determined to upset, disgust, or annoy their readers or to disorient them by shunning traditional plot patterns and character development. Kathryn Hume calls such works aggressive fiction. Why would authors risk alienating their readers, and why should readers persevere? Looking beyond the theory-based justifications that critics often provide for such fiction, Hume offers a commonsense guide for the average reader who wants to better understand and appreciate books that might otherwise seem difficult to enjoy. In her reliable and sympathetic guide, Hume considers roughly forty works of recent American fiction, including books by William Burroughs, Kathy Acker, Chuck Palahniuk, and Cormac McCarthy. Hume gathers attacks on the reader into categories based on narrative structure and content. Writers of some aggressive fictions may wish to frustrate easy interpretation or criticism. Others may try to induce certain responses in readers. Extreme content deployed as a tactic for distancing and alienating can actually produce a contradictory effect for readers who learn to relax and go with the flow: the result may well be exhilaration rather than revulsion.
