Luckman,2015-03-04 Craft and the Creative Economy examines the place of craft and making in the contemporary cultural economy with a distinctive focus on the ways in which this creative sector is growing exponentially as a result of online shopfronts and home based micro enterprise mumpreneurialism and downshifting and renewed demand for the handmade LGBT Activism and the Making of Europe Phillip Ayoub,David Paternotte,2014-10-20 This book explores the alleged uniqueness of the European experience and investigates its ties to a long history of LGBT and queer movements in the region These movements the book argues were inspired by specific ideas about Europe which they sought to realize on the ground through activism Jihadism Transformed Simon Staffell,Akil N. Awan,2016-12-01 Jihadist narratives have evolved dramatically over the past five years driven by momentous events in the Middle East and beyond the death of bin Laden the rise and ultimate failure of the Arab Spring and most notably the rise of the so called Islamic State For many years al Qaeda pointed to an aspirational future Caliphate as their utopian end goal one which allowed them to justify their violent excesses in the here and now Islamic State turned that aspiration into a dystopic reality and in the process hijacked the jihadist narrative breathing new life into the global Salafi Jihadi movement Despite air strikes from above and local disillusionment from below the new caliphate has stubbornly persisted and has been at the heart of ISIS s growing global appeal This timely collection of essays examines how jihadist narratives have changed globally adapting to these turbulent circumstances Area and thematic specialists consider transitions inside the Middle East and North Africa as well as in South Asia sub Saharan Africa and Europe As these analyses demonstrate the success of the ISIS narrative has been as much about resonance with local contexts as it has been about the appeal of the global idea of a tangible and realised caliphate OECD Green Growth Studies Improving Energy Efficiency in the Agro-food Chain OECD,2017-08-10 For a variety of reasons energy use in the agro food sector continues to rise and in many countries is highly dependent on fossil fuels contributing significantly to greenhouse gas emissions It is therefore becoming urgent to consider how the food supply chain can improve its energy efficiency Advances in Communications, Computing, Networks and Security Volume 11 Paul Dowland,2014-08-20 This book is the eleventh in a series presenting research papers arising from MSc MRes research projects undertaken by students of the School of Computing and Mathematics at Plymouth University The publications in this volume are based upon research projects that were undertaken during the 2012 13 academic year A total of 15 papers are presented covering many aspects of modern networking and communication technology including security mobility coding schemes and quality measurement The expanded topic coverage compared to earlier volumes in this series reflects the broadening of our range of MSc programmes Specifically contributing programmes are Communications Engineering and Signal Processing Computer and Information Security Computer Science Network Systems Engineering and Robotics

Digital Privacy, Terrorism and Law Enforcement Simon Hale-Ross,2018-07-06 This book examines the UK s response to terrorist communication Its principle question asks has individual privacy and collective security been successfully managed and balanced The author begins by assessing several technologically based problems facing British law enforcement agencies including use of the Internet the existence of darknet untraceable Internet telephone calls and messages smart encrypted device direct messaging applications and commercially available encryption software These problems are then related to the traceability and typecasting of potential terrorists showing that law enforcement agencies are searching for needles in the ever expanding haystacks To this end the book examines the bulk powers of digital surveillance introduced by the Investigatory Powers Act 2016 The book then moves on to assess whether these new powers and the new legislative safeguards introduced are compatible with international human rights standards The author creates a digital rights criterion from which to challenge the bulk surveillance powers against human rights norms Lord Carlile of Berriew CBE QC in recommending this book notes this particular legal advancement commenting that rightly so the author concludes the UK has fairly balanced individual privacy with collective security The book further analyses the potential impact on intelligence exchange between the EU and the UK following Brexit Using the US as a case study the book shows that UK laws must remain within the ambit of EU law and the Court of Justice of the European Union s CJEU s jurisprudence to maintain the effectiveness of the exchange It addresses the topics with regard to terrorism and counterterrorism methods and will be of interest to researchers academics professionals and students researching counterterrorism and digital electronic communications international human rights data protection and international intelligence exchange A New Scramble for Africa? Sören Scholvin,2016-03-03 Global energy consumption will increase rapidly in the next decades The discrepancy between demand and supply is worrisome within the old and new cores of the world economy Sub Saharan Africa meanwhile possesses vast potential for energy resources to be further exploited Whilst the Global North is a traditional player in the sub Saharan energy sector new actors from emerging economies especially China s state owned enterprises but also Brazilian Indian and South African giants have entered what appears to be a scramble for the largely untapped energy resources of the region This book is the first to bring together comparative perspectives on The strategies of state and non state actors involved in the exploitation of sub Saharan energy resources The potential and pitfalls of new forms of cooperation on energy southwards of the Sahara The domestic opportunities and challenges of the present energy resource boom Dynamics on the international level are brought together with local developments to provide up to date insights on the scramble for energy resources in sub Saharan Africa This book also advances a materialist approach applicable in geographical and political scientific research showing that much insight can be gained by concentrating on the material environment that shapes economic and political phenomena Chrysomeloidea II (Orsodacnidae, Megalopodidae, Chrysomelidae) – Part 2 ,2024-07-01 Volume 6 2 of the Catalogue of Palaearctic Coleoptera focuses on the second part of the beetle superfamily Chrysomeloidea reported from the Palaearctic biogeographic region For the genus and species groups taxa all relevant names are given and all nomenclatural data are cross checked and the distribution of species and subspecies is given per country or smaller region A group of 14 experts have worked to collect data based on a critical review of published sources including a significant amount of new information This volume is also a tool for specialists as well as amateurs which warrants unambiguous communication Global Human Resource Development Thomas Garavan,Alma McCarthy,Michael Morley,2016-02-05 Drawing on contributions from leading academics in the field this volume within the Routledge Series in Human Resource Development specifically focuses on Global Human Resource Development HRD Specifically the volume provides an overview of 17 regions 85 countries and includes one emerging market grouping CIVETS This book examines the role of the state in HRD the relationship between HRD and the level of economic development in the country or region the influence of foreign direct investment within the country or region and firm level HRD practices within countries or regions Global Human Resource Development analyzes HRD from institutional and cross cultural perspectives making it possible for the first time to analyze trends across countries and regions and to draw conclusions about the value of institutional and cross cultural perspectives in the HRD context There is currently no book on the market that conceptualizes the discipline of global HRD in this way making this a definitive book on HRD across the globe of particular interest to researchers and reflective practitioners
