Barry Eichengreen

Geography Paper 1 Memo Essay Questions 2013:

Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen, 2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning Travel, Travel Writing, and British Political Economy Brian P.

Cooper, 2021-11-10 The book draws on the history of economics literary theory and the history of science to explore how European travelers like Alexander von Humboldt and their readers circa 1750 1850 adapted the work of British political economists such as Adam Smith to help organize their observations and in turn how political economists used travelers observations in their own analyses Cooper examines journals letters books art and critical reviews to cast in sharp relief questions raised about political economy by contemporaries over the status of facts and evidence whether its principles admitted of universal application and the determination of wealth value and happiness in different societies Travelers citing T R Malthus s population principle blurred the gendered boundaries between domestic economy and British political economy as embodied in the idealized subjects domestic woman and economic man The book opens new realms in the histories of science in its analyses of debates about gender in social scientific observation Maria Edgeworth Maria Graham and Harriet Martineau observe a role associated with women and methodically interpret what they observe an act reserved in theory by men

The ^APopulist Temptation Barry Eichengreen, 2018-05-03 Lucidly explaining both the appeals and dangers of populism across history this book is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand not just the populist phenomenon but more generally the lasting political fallout that follows in the wake of major economic crises Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia Yong-Shik Lee, 2023-09-05 Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia examines the causes of lasting and complex tensions in the region from underlying political historical military and economic perspectives discusses their historical development and political economic implications for the world and explores possible solutions to build lasting peace The book is unique in that it approaches the topic from the historical perspective of each constituent country in the region Major global powers such as the United States and Russia have also closely engaged in the political and economic affairs of this region through a network of alliances diplomacy trade and investment The book also discusses the influence of these external powers over the crisis their political and economic objectives in the region their strategies and the dynamics that their engagement has created Both South Korea and North Korea have sought reunification of the Korean peninsula which will have a substantial impact on the region The book examines its justification feasibility and effects for the region The book discusses the role of Mongolia in the context of the power dynamics in Northeast Asia A relatively small country in terms of its population Mongolia has rarely been examined in this context Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia makes a fresh assessment of its potential role

Drawing Futures Bob Sheil,Frédéric Migayrou,Luke Pearson,Laura Allen,2016-11-11 Drawing Futures brings together international designers and artists for speculations in contemporary drawing for art and architecture Despite numerous developments in technological manufacture and computational design that provide new grounds for designers the act of drawing still plays a central role as a vehicle for speculation There is a rich and long history of drawing tied to innovations in technology as well as to revolutions in our philosophical understanding of the world In reflection of a society now underpinned by computational networks and interfaces allowing hitherto unprecedented views of the world the changing status of the drawing and its representation as a political act demands a platform for reflection and innovation Drawing Futures will present a compendium of projects writings and interviews that critically reassess the act of drawing and where its future may lie Drawing Futures focuses on the discussion of how the field of drawing may expand synchronously alongside technological and computational developments The book coincides with an international conference of the same name taking place at The Bartlett School of Architecture UCL in November 2016 Bringing together practitioners from many creative fields the book discusses how drawing is changing in relation to new technologies for the production and dissemination of ideas

India China L.H.M. Ling,Adriana Erthal Abdenur,Payal Banerjee,Nimmi Kurian,Mahendra P. Lama,Li Bo,2021-03-11 Challenging the Westphalian view of international relations which focuses on the sovereignty of states and the inevitable potential for conflict the authors from the Borderlands Study Group reconceive borders as capillaries enabling the flow of material cultural and social benefits through local communities nation states and entire regions By emphasizing local agency and regional interdependencies this metaphor reconfigures current narratives about the China India border and opens a new perspective on the long history of the Silk Roads the modern BCIM Initiative and dam construction along the Nu River in China and the Teesta River in India Together the authors show that positive interaction among people on both sides of a border generates larger cross border communities which can pressure for cooperation and development India China offers the hope that people divided by arbitrary geo political boundaries can circumvent race gender class religion and other social barriers to form more inclusive institutions and forms of governance
