Geography Paper Memo June 2015 The Times:

Rethinking Warfare in the 21st Century Iulian Chifu, Greg Simons, 2023-07-13 A critical and multifaceted analysis of the problems created by the politics and communicated representation of contemporary warfare The Drone Debate Avery Plaw, Matthew S. Fricker, Carlos Colon, 2015-12-24 The Drone Debate offers a thorough investigation of the where why how and when of the U S s use of UAVs Beginning with a historical overview of the use of drones in warfare it then addresses whether targeted killing operations are strategically wise whether they are permissible under international law and the related ethical issues It also looks at the political factors behind the use of drones including domestic and global attitudes toward their use and potential issues of proliferation and escalation Finally the use of drones by other countries such as Israel and China is examined Each chapter features a case study that highlights particular incidents and patterns of operation in specific regions including Yemen Somalia Pakistan and Libya and strike types signature strikes personality strikes etc Our Social World Jeanne H. Ballantine, Keith A. Roberts, Kathleen Odell Korgen, 2016-11-30 Inspire your students to develop their sociological imaginations in Our Social World Focused on deep learning rather than memorization this book encourages readers to analyze evaluate and apply information about the social world to see the connection between the world and personal events from a new perspective and to confront sociological issues on a day to day basis Organized around the Social World Model a conceptual framework used across chapters to see the complex links between various micro to macro levels of the social system students will develop the practice of using three levels of analysis and to view sociology as an integrated whole rather than a set of discrete subjects The Drone Memos Jameel Jaffer, 2010-01-12 A trenchant summation and analysis of the legal rationales behind the US drone policy of targeted killing of suspected terrorists including US citizens Publishers Weekly starred review In the long response to 9 11 the US government initiated a deeply controversial policy of targeted killing the extrajudicial execution of suspected terrorists and militants typically via drones A remarkable effort was made to legitimize this practice one that most human rights experts agree is illegal and that the United States has historically condemned In The Drone Memos civil rights lawyer Jameel Jaffer presents and assesses the legal memos and policy documents that enabled the Obama administration to put this program into action In a lucid and provocative introduction Jaffer who led the ACLU legal team that secured the release of many of the documents evaluates the drone memos in light of domestic and international law He connects the documents legal abstractions to the real world violence they allow and makes the case that we are trading core principles of democracy and human rights for the illusion of security A careful study of a secretive counterterrorism infrastructure capable of sustaining endless orderless war this book is profoundly necessary Katrina vanden Heuvel editor and publisher of The Nation Drawing Futures Bob Sheil, Frédéric Migayrou, Luke Pearson, Laura Allen, 2016-11-11 Drawing Futures brings together international designers and artists for speculations in contemporary drawing for art and architecture Despite numerous developments in technological manufacture and computational design that provide new grounds for designers the act of drawing still plays a central role as a vehicle for speculation There is a rich and long history of drawing tied to innovations in technology as well as to revolutions in our philosophical understanding of the world In reflection of a society now underpinned by computational networks and interfaces allowing hitherto unprecedented views of the world the changing status of the drawing and its representation as a political act demands a platform for reflection and innovation Drawing Futures will present a compendium of projects writings and interviews that critically reassess the act of drawing and where its future may lie Drawing Futures focuses on the discussion of how the field of drawing may expand synchronously alongside technological and computational developments The book coincides with an international conference of the same name taking place at The Bartlett School of Architecture UCL in November 2016 Bringing together practitioners from many creative fields the book discusses how drawing is changing in relation to new technologies for the production and dissemination of ideas Understanding the Social World Russell K. Schutt, 2019-12-20 Understanding the Social World Research Methods for the 21st Century is a concise and accessible introduction to the process and practice of social science research The Second Edition of this fast paced and visually engaging text discusses newly popular research methods highlights the fascinating work being conducted by contemporary social researchers and includes enhanced tools for learning in the text and online One Nation Undecided Peter H. Schuck, 2019-08-06 At a time of deep social and political division along comes a much needed book to steer us toward solutions to five very difficult national problems There could be no better guide for this endeavor than Peter Schuck one of the clearest and most thoughtful legal and policy scholars of this or any generation Robert E Litan author of Trillion Dollar Economists The Common Camp Irit Katz, 2022-08-09 Seeing the camp as a persistent political instrument in Israel Palestine and beyond The Common Camp underscores the role of the camp as a spatial instrument employed for reshaping controlling and struggling over specific territories and populations Focusing on the geopolitical complexity of Israel Palestine and the dramatic changes it has experienced during the past century this book explores the region's extensive networks of camps and their existence as both a tool of colonial power and a makeshift space of resistance Examining various forms of camps devised by and for Zionist settlers Palestinian refugees asylum seekers and other groups Irit Katz demonstrates how the camp serves as a common thread in shaping lands and lives of subjects from across the political spectrum Analyzing the architectural and political evolution of the camp as a modern instrument engaged by colonial and national powers as well as those opposing them Katz offers a unique perspective on the dynamics of Israel Palestine highlighting how spatial transience has become permanent in the ongoing story of this contested territory The Common Camp presents a novel approach to the concept of the camp detailing its varied history as an apparatus used for population containment and territorial expansion as well as a space of everyday life and subversive political action Bringing together a broad range of historical and ethnographic materials within the context of this singular yet versatile entity the book locates the camp at the core of modern societies and how they change and transform A Thousand Paper Cuts Anjali Nath,2025-10-03 Anjali Nath considers the paper worlds made and destroyed by US imperialism offering a pre history of the redacted visions of the Homeland Security age The Economics of the Global Defence Industry Keith Hartley,Jean Belin,2019-11-08 This book makes an original contribution to our knowledge of the world s major defence industries Experts from a wide range of different countries from the major economies of North America and Western Europe to developing economies and some unique cases such as China India Singapore South Africa and North Korea describe and analyse the structure conduct and performance of the defence industry in that country Each chapter opens with statistics on a key nation s defence spending its spending on defence R D and on procurement over the period 1980 to 2017 allowing for an analysis of industry changes following the end of the Cold War After the facts of each industry the authors describe and analyse the structure conduct and performance of the industry The analysis of structure includes discussions of entry conditions domestic monopoly oligopoly structures and opportunities for competition The section on conduct analyses price non price competition including private and state funded R D and performance incorporates profitability imports and exports together with spin offs and technical progress The conclusion explores the future prospects for each nation s defence industry Do defence industries have a future What might the future defence firm and industry look like in 50 years time This volume is a vital resource and reference for anyone interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations strategic studies and public procurement
