

A GRADUATION PRAYER FOR THE CLASS OF 2020

We Bless You as You Go

Gracious God,
look with love on all our sixth-class girls and boys.

It has been a very different end to your time with us in our school.

You have stayed home, worked hard, been creative, learned new skills and remained strong.

Together but apart you have continued to make us proud.

Today, as we celebrate all that you have been and all that you will become, we ask that God's blessing will wrap each one of you in a cloak of love and protection.

We give thanks for the last eight years.

We will always remember you, the class of 2020.

We will hold you in our hearts and in our prayers as you take the next steps on your lifelong journey of learning.

We know that you will make the very best of your time in your new schools.

We pray that you will always know that you are loved by God, who wants you to be the very best that you can be so that you can set the world on fire.

May God bless you and keep you safe until we meet again.
Amen.

Relations in the United States and Germany Claudia E. Haupt, 2011-12-08 This comparative analysis of the constitutional law of religion state relations in the United States and Germany focuses on the principle of state neutrality A strong emphasis on state neutrality a notoriously ambiguous concept is a shared feature in the constitutional jurisprudence of the US Supreme Court and the German Federal Constitutional Court but neutrality does not have the same meaning in both systems In Germany neutrality tends to indicate more distance between church and state whereas the opposite is the case in the United States Neutrality also has other meanings in both systems making straightforward comparison more difficult than it might seem Although the underlying trajectory of neutrality is different in both countries the discussion of neutrality breaks down into largely parallel themes By examining those themes in a comparative perspective the meaning of state neutrality in religion state relations can be delineated
