Gunnar Asplund's Gothenburg Nicholas Adams, 2014-10-08 In the west coast port city of Gothenburg Sweden the architect Gunnar Asplund built a modest extension to an old courthouse on the main square 1934 36 Judged today to be one of the finest works of modern architecture the courthouse extension was immediately the object of a negative newspaper campaign led by one of the most noted editors of the day Torgny Segerstedt Famous for his determined opposition to National Socialism he also took a principled stand against the undermining of urban tradition in Gothenburg Gothenburg s problems with modern public architecture though clamorous and publicized throughout Sweden were by no means unique In Gunnar Asplund s Gothenburg Nicholas Adams places Asplund s building in the wider context of public architecture between the wars setting the originality and sensitivity of Asplund s conception against the political and architectural struggles of the 1930s Today looking at the building in the broadest of contexts we can appreciate the richness of this exquisite work of architecture This book recaptures the complex magic of its creation and the fascinating controversy of its completed form
