Dragon Form

At 1st level, your patron has bestowed the technique enabling you to transform bearing the might of dragons. As a bonus action you transform which lasts for 1 minute or until dismissed (no action required). While active you gain the following benefits:

- Your AC becomes 10 + Dexterity + Charisma (cannot benefit from shield). If wearing armor use higher value.
- When casting a cantrip with a ranged attack roll you can instead perform it as a melee weapon attack using your Draconic Weapons. Your Draconic Weapons use the same attack and damage rolls plus the spells effect. Once per turn when damaging a creature with your Draconic Weapons you may add 1d6 plus half your Warlock level (rounded up) to the damage.
- You gain temporary hit points equal to twice your Warlock level.
- You are proficient in Constitution saving throws.

You can transform a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

Eldritch Wings

Starting at 6th level, Your Dragon Form allows you to sprout wings made of eldritch energy with limited flying ability. As a bonus action while Dragon form is active or when transforming you can fly up to half your movement speed. At the end of your turn your flying speed is reduced to zero after which you gently fall. At Lv14 your Eldritch Wings provide a flying speed equal to your full movement.

Eldritch Breath

Starting at 10th level, While in your Dragon Form and casting a cantrip with a ranged attack you may target all creatures either within a 15ft cone or within a 30ft line 5ft wide. Each creature within the attacks range must make a wisdom saving throw against your spell save DC, a creature that fails is frightened for 1 minute. If a creature frightened by this effect ends its turn more than 30ft away it can repeat their saving throw to end the effect.

You may use this feature once per Dragon Form.

Limited Dragon Shape

Starting at 14th level, As an action you can cast Shapechange using this feature, when doing so you can only use it to transform into a dragon who's challenge rating is equal to or lower than your level.

While Shapechanged using this feature you do not gain the creatures hit points. When you reach 0 hit points while Shapechanged this way you return to your original form with 0 hit points.

Once you use this feature, you can't do so again until you finish a long rest.
