Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)
Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provider must notify the same person on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see how to get a TIN on page 3.
Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the check on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification
Under penalty of perjury, I certify that:
1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a (1) S corporation or other U.S. person (defined below).
Certification instructions: You must check box 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your last return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign this certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.
