EASYUNI Ultimate University Guide 2015-2016 EasyUni, By the time you get your hands on this magazine a wave of changes is expected to happen tension of the recent SPM exams would have plummeted as the holiday spirit envelops us and while everything is bright and merry some of you could be at the FACON Education Fair in KLCC this December deciding which course to take whilst silently hoping you get aces on your actual SPM results nagging thoughts you would rather muffle with the latest Star Wars movie or New Year s dinner party Nerve wracking it is change is exciting It s a cycle that all of us operate in and that s totally fine as I ve been there too Taking over the magazine with a fresh team of young writers was a tough experience but it was a great opportunity to decide and flesh out new ideas Thoughts of failing trouble our minds but those are the very things that hinder us from growing After having said that I would encourage all of you to be recipe for change Don t be afraid to cook up some trouble

Contemporary Perspectives on English as a Medium of Instruction Hayriye Kayi-Aydar, Laura Mahalingappa, 2024-03-01 English

Medium Instruction EMI is the use of English to teach academic content in countries where English is not the first language. There continues to be a rapid growth in EMI around the globe and there is often official government support for EMI programs or curriculum. The goal of this volume is to explore current perspectives on EMI from empirical data to theoretical considerations in order to identify strengths and shortcomings of EMI programs and or curricula defining ideologies and dominant methodologies in diverse contexts and offer evidence based implications for classroom practice policy and future research. The chapters reflect the voices of diverse groups of people e.g. content instructors classroom teachers college students parents teacher educators etc who experience EMI in their current educational environments in different countries.

Multicultural Andragogy for Transformative Learning Peltz, David P., Clemons, Anthony C., 2018-07-06 As individuals progress through each stage of life they continue to learn and grow intellectually. However what may be a conducive learning environment for a child may not be as effective for an adult creating a need to understand how to aid adults in being successful learners in their later life. Multicultural Andragogy for Transformative Learning provides a diverse collection of positions related to adult learning. The book touches on a variety of topics including autonomous learning as a transformative experience mixing cultures through intercultural methodology and integrating cultural perspectives into organizational learning. As a publication with a focus on andragogy this proves a useful resource for academicians higher education administrators and educators who teach both traditional and non traditional students in higher education.

Faculty Service-Learning Guidebook Christine M. Cress, Stephanie T. Stokamer, Thomas J. Van Cleave, Joyce P. Kaufman, 2023-07-03 This is a practical guide to designing teaching and coordinating service learning courses and for developing reciprocal community partnerships and community based research through a lens of equity that addresses the endemic racial social economic and environmental disparities across society. The text provides a comprehensive framework for developing both in person and on line service learning with a chapter on virtual delivery of courses that integrates the principles and practices described throughout the book. The authors uniquely integrate the how to of conducting service learning with the theoretical foundations to enact effective equitable and inclusive community engagement. Given this moment of enormous social inequality and divisiveness the authors offer a new definition and set of educational principles that they characterize as Equity Centered Community.

Engagement Excellence These principles serve to guide academic and community engagement that is democratic recognizes the voice and expertise of community partners addresses the power imbalances between communities and academic institutions and develops an educational experience that is potentially transformative and promotes civic responsibility Informed by the literature of critical service learning critical race theory intercultural communication theory and social constructivism this book attempts to deconstruct the assumption of the preeminence of academic knowledge to reconstruct a new operational paradigm of equity centeredness that validates community capacity to guide faculty in their redesign of service learning curriculum activities collaborations and scholarship It is based on the principles of Student Agency demonstrated as enhanced skills knowledge and motivation Community Efficacy recognition of community assets and capacity building Scholarly Advocacy leveraging evidence based research based for equity centered learning serving and social justice The authors offer examples of syllabi lessons and assignments reflection questions evaluation rubrics as well as an array of teaching tips that illustrate strategies for use in the classroom and in the field The book is addressed to faculty embarking on service learning and to seasoned scholar practitioners looking for innovative ideas as well as to campus administrators who coordinate community outreach or college student volunteer services offering guidance on leveraging resources and fiscal support from external stakeholders It is also designed to serve as a resource for professional development workshops and faculty scholar learning communities It offers a rich compendium of ideas and examples from which faculty and practitioners can select exercises and elements to incorporate or adapt for their courses whether designing short term engagements or extended service learning programs
