manuscript It places John Milton Andrew Marvell Margaret Cavendish and Katherine Philips and other mid century poets into the full century of specifically literary development It traces continuity and change imitation and innovation in the full century trajectory of such poetic genres as sonnet elegy satire georgic epigram ode devotional lyric and epic The volume s attention to poetic form builds on the current upswing in historicist formalism allowing a close focus on poetry as an intensely aesthetic and social literary mode Designed for maximum classroom utility the organization is both thematic and in the authors section chronological After a comprehensive Introduction organizational sections focus on Transitions Materiality Production and Circulation Poetics and Form Genres and Poets The Dynamics of Text and Framing Phenomena Matti Peikola,Birte Bös,2020-11-15 This volume explores the complex relations of texts and their contextualising elements drawing particularly on the notions of paratext metadiscourse and framing It aims at developing a more comprehensive historical understanding of these phenomena covering a wide time span from Old English to the 20th century in a range of historical genres and contexts of text production mediation and consumption However more fundamentally it also seeks to expand our conception of text and the communicative spaces surrounding them and probe the explanatory potential of the concepts under investigation Though essentially rooted in historical linguistics and philology the twelve contributions of this volume are also open to insights from other disciplines such as medieval manuscript studies and bibliography but also information studies marketing studies and even digital electronics and thus tackle opportunities and challenges in researching the dynamics of text and framing phenomena in a historical perspective Exploring the cultural, ideological and economic legacies of Euro 2012 Peter Kennedy,Christos Kassimeris,2016-03-22 European National football came together in the summer of 2012 for the 14th occasion This book sets out to examine the enduring social tensions between supporters and authorities as well as those between local national and European identities which formed the backdrop to the 14th staging of the European National football tournament Euro2012 The context of the tournament was somewhat unique from those staged in previous years being jointly hosted for the first time by two post Communist nations still in the process of social and economic transition In this respect the decision to stage Euro 2012 in Poland and Ukraine bore its own material and symbolic legacies shaping the tournament the unsettling of neo liberal imaginings and emergent East West fears about poor infrastructure inefficiencies and corruption jostled with moral panics about racism and fears surrounding the potentially unfulfilled consumerist expectations of west European supporters The book seeks to explore the ideologies and practices invoked by competing national sentiments and examine the social tensions ambiguities and social capital generating potentials surrounding national ethnic European identity with respect to national football teams supporters and supporter movements This book was published as a special issue of Soccer and Society Exploring English, Level 1 Workbook Tim Harris,Allan Rowe,1995 The Exploring English Workbook provides additional writing practice using the same grammatical terms as introduced in the Student Book This fully illustrates six level series will set your students on the road to English language fluency Exploring English teaches all four language skills right from the start and gives students a wealth of opportunities to practice what they have learned The Devil from over the Sea Sarah Covington,2022-03-24 In Ireland few figures have generated more hatred than Oliver Cromwell whose seventeenth century conquest massacres and dispossessions would endure in the social memory for ages to come The Devil from over the Sea explores the many ways in which Cromwell was remembered and sometimes conveniently forgotten in historical religious political and literary texts according to the interests of different communities across time Cromwell s powerful afterlife in Ireland however cannot be understood without also investigating his presence in folklore and the landscape in ruins and curses Nor can he be separated from the idea of the Cromwellian a term which came to elicit an entire chain of contemptuous associations that would begin after his invasion and assume a wholly new force in the nineteenth century What emerges from all these memorializing traces is a multitudinous Cromwell who could be represented as brutal comic sympathetic or satanic He could be discarded also tellingly from the accounts of the past and especially by those which viewed him as an embarrassment or worse In addition to exploring the many reasons why Cromwell was so vehemently remembered or forgotten in Ireland Sarah Covington finally uncovers the larger truths conveyed by sometimes fanciful or invented accounts Contrary to being damaging examples of myth making the memorializations contained in martyrologies folk tales or newspaper polemics were often productive in cohering communities or in displaying agency in the form of counter memories that claimed Cromwell for their own and reshaped Irish history in the process Principles and Practices for Teaching English as an International Language Lubna Alsagoff,Sandra Lee Mckay,Guangwei Hu,Willy A. Renandya,2012-04-23 This text explores the pedagogical implications of the continuing spread of English and its role as an international language highlighting the importance of socially sensitive pedagogy in contexts outside of inner circle English speaking countries Exploring the Complexities in Global Citizenship Education Lauren Ila Misiaszek,2019-08-14 With a focus on the Global South this book argues that awareness and discussion of the politics of equity and inclusion in global citizenship education GCE research are essential to the future of nuanced and effective research in this area The book explores the notion of heavily regulated hard spaces to examine areas of institutional blindness and reflects on ways to negotiate the issue of sensitivity in an institutional context exploring how one s sensitivity relates to pedagogy and ethics Through this in depth metadiscussion of GCE research the book provides a complex portrait of unique challenges in this domain and explores the nuanced experience of navigating temporal intersections of the global the citizen and education in geographically and thematically obstructed spaces This book will be of great interest to researchers policymakers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of global education comparative education and educational policy Beyond Productivity Kim Hensley Owens,Derek Van Ittersum,2023-11-15 In Beyond Productivity a wide range of contributors share honest narratives of the sometimes impossible conditions that scholars face when completing writing projects The essays provide backstage views of the authors varying approaches to moving forward when the desire to produce wanes when deciding a project is not working when working within and around and redefining academic productivity expectations and when writing with ever changing bodies that do not always function as expected This collection positions scholarly writers ways of writing as a form of flexible evolving knowledge By exhibiting what is lost and gained through successive rounds of transformation and adaptation over time the contributors offer a sustainable understanding and practice of process one that looks beyond productivity as the primary measure of success Each presents a fluid understanding of the writing process illustrating its deeply personal nature and revealing how fragmented and disjointed methods and experiences can highlight what is precious about writing Beyond Productivity determines anew the use and value of scholarly writing and the processes that produce it both within and beyond the context of the losses constraints and adaptations associated with the COVID 19 pandemic A Supplement to Allibone's Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors John Foster Kirk,1891
