

GED 2014 Social Studies Extended Response Prompt

Quotation

"Liberty must at all hazards be supported. We have a right to it, derived from our Maker."

- John Adams, 1765

Speech

In this excerpt from his January 1961 inaugural address, President John F. Kennedy describes his vision of the United States' place in the world during the Cold War.

The world is very different now. For man holds in his mortal hands the power to abolish all forms of human poverty and all forms of human life. And yet the same revolutionary beliefs for which our forebears fought are still at issue around the globe--the belief that the rights of man come not from the generosity of the state, but from the hand of God.

We dare not forget today that we are the heirs of that first revolution. Let the word go forth from this time and place, to friend and foe alike, that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans--born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a hard and bitter peace, proud of our ancient heritage, and unwilling to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which this nation has always been committed, and to which we are committed today at home and around the world.

Let every nation know, whether it wishes us well or ill, that we shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend, oppose any foe, to assure the survival and the success of liberty.

In the long history of the world, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not shrink from this responsibility--I welcome it . . .

Finally, to those nations who would make themselves our adversary, we offer not a pledge but a request: that both sides begin anew the quest for peace, before the dark powers of destruction unleashed by science engulf all humanity in planned or accidental self-destruction.

We dare not tempt them with weakness. For only when our arms are sufficient beyond doubt can we be certain beyond doubt that they will never be employed.

In your response, develop an argument about how President Kennedy's position in his speech reflects the enduring issue expressed in the quotation from John Adams. Incorporate the relevant and specific evidence from the quotation, the speech and your own knowledge of the enduring issue and the circumstances surrounding the Cold War to support your analysis.

Type your response in the box. This task may require 25 minutes to complete.
