

A detailed illustration of the rebuilding of Jerusalem's walls. In the foreground, numerous workers in traditional robes are engaged in various tasks: some are moving large stone blocks, others are using tools like hammers and chisels. A wooden wheelbarrow and several large earthenware jars are scattered on the ground. To the right, a small wooden cart is loaded with stone blocks. In the background, a high stone wall under construction separates the work area from a city built on a hill. The city features a prominent blue-domed building and a tall bell tower. Two large cranes with long wooden beams are positioned on the hillside, one on the left and one on the right. The overall scene is set in a hilly, arid landscape under a clear sky.
