The paragraph or paragraphs in the middle of the letter should contain the relevant information behind the writing of the letter. Most letters in English are not very long, so keep the information to the essentials and concentrate on organising it in a clear and logical manner rather than expanding too much.

Ending a letter:

1) Yours faithfully

If you do not know the name of the person, end the letter this way 2) Yours sincerely

If you know the name of the person, end the letter this way 3) Your signature

Sign your name, then print it underneath the signature. If you think the person you are writing to might not know whether you are male or female, put your title in brackets after your name.
