(UUM Press) Kadir Din,Jabil Mapjabil,2010-01-01 This collection offers a sample of contemporary works on tourism and its impact on the Malaysian environment written by academics from a variety of perspectives Given the growing body of literature on different aspects of the industry the coverage is by no means representative let alone exhaustive of the current discourse Nonetheless the nineteen chapters cover a range of interests and concerns which have emerged as a consequence of spectacular growth in tourist arrival which currently places Malaysia as one of the most popular destinations in Asia Recent forecast indicates that the growth trends will continue for at least another decade before the country as a destination approaches maturity This volume would be a useful reference for students academic and other researchers who are looking for detailed information to enable them to analyse the impacts and implications of tourism development on the host society Tourism in Malaysia: A. H. M. Zehadul Karim,2016-09-22 As a pluralistic nation Malaysia consists of diverse ethnic groups of people with various cultures that integrate harmonious and peaceful living in a politically stable and wonderfully rich environmental setting Due to such unique features people from abroad become largely attracted to this land and thus frequently arrive here as visitors and tourists There are tremendous amounts of attractions for the visitors and tourists and people from various backgrounds arrive to stay here temporarily generating around RM65 billion in foreign earnings adding to its national coffer every year Nevertheless tourism also causes a major negative effect in which the local culture may be assimilated into the alien norms and behaviors through the continuous process of acculturation Due to day to day interactions with the tourists and visitors many sociocultural impacts have affected local values which contextually require to be redefined This book analyzes critically the sociocultural and environmental impacts of tourism in Malaysia having collected both qualitative and quantitative data at the empirical level of investigation The Hospitality and Tourism Industry in ASEAN and East Asian Destinations Jinlin Zhao,Lianping Ren,Xiangping Li,2021-07-15 This new volume addresses the growing interest to understand tourism and hospitality in Southeast and South Asia two regions that have seen tremendous growth in international tourists in recent years It explores the current development of hospitality and tourism industry in the regions of Hong Kong Macao and Taiwan as well as other key countries in Southeast and South Asia The Hospitality and Tourism Industry in ASEAN and East Asian Destinations New Growth Trends and Developments provides updated findings and case studies that highlight opportunities and issues of tourism and hospitality development in ASEAN Chapters cover such diverse topics as Online marketing strategies Sustainable hospitality development Diversification efforts of the tourism industry Innovations in independent hotels Wildlife tourism in urban destinations The Vietnamese national park system Consumers positive and negative images of certain destinations Much more While academicians will benefit from the updated research findings summarized by the respected scholars hospitality professionals will also find the book a valuable source of information as the chapters delve into the most recent topical and industry focused issues
