Generative AI in the English Composition Classroom Daniel Plate, Elizabeth Melick, James Hutson, Susan Edele, 2024-09-18. Designed to cater to the needs of both novice and seasoned writing instructors, this book provides a range of practical and adaptable strategies for integrating generative artificial intelligence (AI) into English writing curricula. Generative AI in the English Composition Classroom proposes strategic methodologies to ensure that AI is utilized as a facilitator of learning and creativity rather than as a shortcut to academic success. With a particular emphasis on sophisticated large language models such as Claude ChatGPT and Gemini, this book critically addresses potential challenges, including concerns related to academic integrity. It includes case studies and practical strategies to exemplify how AI can enhance the writing process while emphasizing the continuing importance of a solid foundation in writing structure, processes, and rhetorical strategies. These case studies and strategies are designed for immediate application, offering educators and students practical tools to effectively navigate AI-augmented writing environments. Finally, the book looks to the future, discussing the evolving skillsets required in the workforce and how educators can equip students for a future in which AI is an integral component. A forward-thinking and invaluable guide, this book will be of interest to educators involved in teaching English Composition and writing.

Rethinking Writing One Word at a Time Sheila Beverly, 2023-12-08. Reviews: Sheila Beverly's new workbook, Rethinking Writing One Word at a Time, is a promising tool for helping students who struggle with writing. Mrs. Beverly, who holds a B.A. in English and an M.Ed. in reading education, has years of experience teaching students to write. At first, her innovative Grammar Bubble appears to be a part-to-whole approach to teaching writing. But in truth, she uses direct teaching of the eight parts of speech as an entry point, a conceptual structure, and a motivational hook to get hesitant writers to put their ideas down on paper. Then Mrs. Beverly uses a workshop/collaborative model to keep her students writing, drafting, sharing, revising, and editing. It is obvious that much thinking, trying out, and improving has gone into the activities described in this workbook. It is also obvious from reading the revealing Preface that Mrs. Beverly is a committed educator who is passionate about empowering her students to express their voices in print. Dr. Darrell Morris, Professor of Reading Education, 2016-2017 Distinguished Graduate Faculty Award Director of Anderson Reading Clinic, Department of Reading Education, English Department Chair, Retired, wishes he had Rethinking Writing One Word at a Time: Eight Parts of Speech when he was teaching in the classroom. Finally, a workbook that really breaks down grammar and writing in a way that builds and makes sense to the teacher and the learner The Grammar Bubble Manipulative Toy games writing prompts and more are great for emerging writers and those who need a writing refresher It is interactive and thought provoking This workbook could benefit anyone who desires to grow in their writing journey by starting with Rethinking Writing Dr Renita L Webb Ph D Educational Leadership Strategist Former Elementary School Principal Former Middle High School English Teacher
