

The Good Samaritan

The Samaritan took the man to an inn.

He paid the inn keeper to take care of him.

He promised to come back and make sure he was ok.

Jesus said we should show God's love to everyone.

Jesus told a story to teach people to love others.

One day, a man was walking alone on a mountain path.

A gang of robbers jumped out on him. They beat him up and stole everything he had.

Literary Approaches to the Bible Douglas Mangum, Douglas Estes, 2018-03-14 The study of the Bible has long included a literary aspect with great attention paid not only to what was written but also to how it was expressed The detailed analysis of biblical books and passages as written texts has benefited from the study of literature in classical philology ancient rhetoric and modern literary criticism This volume of the Lexham Methods Series introduces the various ways the study of literature has been used in biblical studies Most literary approaches emphasize the study of the text alone its structure its message and its use of literary devices rather than its social or historical background The methods described in Literary Approaches to the Bible are focused on different ways of analyzing the text within its literary context Some of the techniques have been around for centuries but the theories of literary critics from the early 20th century to today had a profound impact on biblical interpretation In this book you will learn about those literary approaches how they were adapted for biblical studies and what their strengths and weaknesses are

The True Human Being Maria Louise Odgaard Møller, 2019-06-17 The aim of Odgaard Møller's book is threefold The first main section seeks to clarify how and why Jesus is presented in the pre 1968 writings of the Danish theologian and philosopher K E Løgstrup 1905 1981 Throughout his work Løgstrup's main focus has been a rehabilitation of the insight that life is something definite because it is created Here Jesus primarily plays a methodological strategic role as the one confirming and giving witness to Løgstrup's interpretation of created life in a given time of his authorship When faith in creation is formulated polemically against another interpretation of life Jesus serves as Løgstrup's ally in this discussion In the second main section this examination is extrapolated to include a discussion with Bultmann and two of his students in order to clarify the character of his Christology not least whether or in what way this can be characterised as implicit Christology Finally in the light of Ricoeur's hermeneutic philosophy of religion the third main section considers the systematic theological validity of this picture of Jesus The overall conclusion can be summed up in this way The main line in Løgstrup's work goes from created life to the human being Jesus of Nazareth Jesus incarnates created life therefore he is the true human being This close connection between created Life and true Human Being is the kernel in Løgstrup's thought This makes his perception of Jesus and his Christology distinctive original and specifically Løgstrupian over 50 years been at the forefront of the study of metaphysics and philosophy of religion Making a compelling case for a religious practice that avoids trivializing religious belief this book promises to be a corrective to those who see faith as nothing more than ethics in disguise and to those metaphysicians who see faith as a set of beliefs The JAG Journal ,1961
