Reclaiming Power in Congregational and Community Ministry Fritz Ritsch,2023-11-14 Partisan religious interests have hijacked faith in America for political power in the process dividing our nation and giving religion a bad name Faith groups who want to build unity in contrast feel powerless to attain their goals Congregations who can adapt to a more democratic approach to ministry in which power is shared by both staff and congregants can dramatically strengthen their congregations and serve their neighbors more effectively Shared power strengthens individuals congregations and community efforts enabling us to work with others build community and recognize and overcome negative power dynamics so that people can work together to build healthier congregations and communities It also burnishes religion s tarnished image by demonstrating faithful cooperative and positive civic engagement for the community s good This book also addresses the inevitable power dynamics in any congregation allowing leaders to recognize unhealthy dynamics foster healthy ones and discover and cultivate the hidden power in each parishioner so that individually they can live more fully into God s intention for them and together the congregation can become the outpost of God s reign that it is meant to be An Ethic of

Hospitality Emily Jeptepkeny Choge,2020-07-30 In our increasingly xenophobic world countries are turning away refugees and immigrants Based on the situation in Kenya this book offers a countercultural ethic of hospitality and welcome to the stranger an ethic fraught with dangers and yet filled with great opportunities for transforming our world Drawing on the scriptural pilgrim motif and specifically on the book of Hebrews this study paints a picture of refugees not only as needy strangers to be herded into camps but as brothers and sisters who bring with them treasures and talents that can enrich our understanding of our Christian identity and mission as pilgrims in the world The hospitality practice seen in Hebrews offers hope and promise not only for refugees themselves but also for the pilgrim church Like the ancient heroes of faith portrayed in Hebrews we too live as pilgrims and aliens who await with hope the city whose architect and founder is God Refugees in fact teach us how to live our pilgrim identity they become teachers not only for the church in Kenya but also for the body of Christ worldwide

Servants in Charge Keith M. Bailey,2007-04-01 Servants in Charge is a training guide for elders and deacons with a study guide included Servants in Charge define the roles of elders and deacons and offers practical suggestions for selecting these important leaders And for servants who find themselves in charge there are guidelines toward effective and fruitful ministry Have you ever been in an office or a place of business when someone walked in and asked Who s in charge here Can it be that the people who enter your church ask the same question but it is important to realize the answer is not a mystery In a beautiful parable about His second coming Jesus made it clear that His servants are in charge These people are known not so much for their position or power but for their attitude of true servant hood In Servants in Charge we find that Dr Bailey deals with the topics of who a deacon and elder are to be to what their qualifications are from a scriptural basis He also goes on to explain their biblically based ministries and their spiritual gifts as laid out in the New Testament He completes this short study with a guide for preparation for them and their election and consecration A great must have for the church today
