Routledge Handbook of Cultural and Creative Industries in Asia Lorraine Lim, Hye-Kyung Lee, 2018-12-07 Recent years have witnessed the remarkable development of the cultural and creative industries (CCIs) in Asia from the global popularity of the Japanese games and anime industries to Korea's film and pop music successes. While CCIs in these Asian cultural powerhouses aspire to become key players in the global cultural economy, Southeast Asian countries such as Malaysia and Thailand are eager to make a strong mark in the region's cultural landscape. As the first handbook on CCIs in Asia, this book provides readers with a contextualized understanding of the conditions and operation of Asian CCIs. Both internationalising and de-Westernising our knowledge of CCIs, it offers a comprehensive contribution to the field from academics, practitioners and activists alike. Covering 12 different societies in Asia from Japan and China to Thailand, Indonesia and India, the themes include State policy in shaping CCIs, Cultural production inside and outside of institutional frameworks, Circulation of CCIs products and consumer culture, Cultural activism and independent culture, Cultural heritage as an industry. Presenting a detailed set of case studies, this book will be an essential companion for researchers and students in the field of cultural policy, cultural and creative industries, media and cultural studies and Asian studies in general.

The Oxford Handbook of Cinematic Listening Carlo Cenciarelli, 2021-03-29 The Oxford Handbook of Cinematic Listening explores the place of cinema in the history of listening. It looks at the ways in which listening to film is situated in textual, spatial and social practices and also studies how cinematic modes of listening have extended into other media and everyday experiences. Chapters are structured around six themes. Part I: Genealogies and Beginnings considers film sound in light of pre-existing practices such as opera and shadow theatre and also explores changes in listening taking place at critical junctures in the early history of cinema. Part II: Locations and Relocations focuses on specific venues and presentational practices from roadshow movies to contemporary live score screenings. Part III: Representations and Re-Presentations zooms into the formal properties of specific films, analyzing representations of listening on screen as well as the role of sound as a representational surplus. Part IV: The Listening Body focuses on the power of cinematic sound to engage the full body sensorium. Part V: Listening Again discusses a range of ways in which film sound is encountered and reinterpreted outside the cinema, whether through ancillary materials such as songs and soundtrack albums or in experimental conditions and pedagogical contexts. Part VI: Across Media compares cinema with the listening protocols of TV series and music video, promenade theatre and personal stereos, video games and Virtual Reality.
