Sotirios Majoros,2019-11-29 When Sotirios Majoros s thirteen year old daughter asked him a seemingly simple question What is life little did she realize the explosion of thoughts and ideas that she would set off in her father s mind To answer her question Sotirios found himself looking back through time to the father of history Herodotus and across humanity s numerous cultures focusing in particular on how this question is expressed through various pieces of artwork such as sculptures and paintings He also looked back through his own life eventually realizing that lurking beneath his daughter s question was an even more fundamental question Who am I His attempt to answer this question forms the foundation of this book and causation There has been comparatively little focus however on the historical content that students study on how they study it and on how mastery of historical content contributes to students overall picture of a historical past This volume gathers together recent research and theorising from around the world on key issues central to historical learning and instruction What sense do students make of the history that they are taught Are students able to organise historical knowledge in order to form large scale representations of the past and what difficulties can children face in doing so What are the relationships that obtain between history as an academic discipline as practised in universities and history as a subject taught in schools What can research tell us about the effects of instructional strategies that aim to help students join up what they learn in class into meaningful historical knowledge and understanding
