volume Judith Butler and Shoshana Felman have united all of Johnson's published and unpublished work on Shelley alongside their own new insightful pieces of criticism and those of two other peers and fellow pioneers in feminist theory Mary Wilson Carpenter and Cathy Caruth The book thus evolves as a conversation amongst key scholars of shared intellectual inclinations while closing the circle on Johnson's life and her own fascination with the life and circle of another woman writer who of course also happened to be the daughter of a founder of modern feminism
