Indigenous Concepts of Education Berte van Wyk,D. Adeniji-Neill,2014-08-20 Featuring in depth examinations of concepts of knowing learning and education from a range of cultures worldwide this book offers a rich theory of indigenous concepts of education their relation to Western concepts and their potential for creating education that articulates the aspirations of communities and fosters humanity for all learners Resources in Education ,2001-04 Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom Dorothy Littlejohn Guthrie,2011-09-14 In this book African American literature is illuminated through a project based curriculum that incorporates national curriculum standards It is important that the school curriculae be representative of the diversity of the American student population Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom is designed to help teachers and librarians achieve that goal The book recommends and annotates more than 200 titles that touch on African American life from slavery through the present time most of them by black authors and many of them winners of the Coretta Scott King Caldecott and or Newbery awards This guide offers cross curricular lesson plans for grades K 12 Each chapter identifies areas in which instructional attention is most needed to help students develop a greater appreciation for diversity perseverance and ethnicity Examples and ideas for activities are offered to reinforce related concepts With this book teachers and librarians will be better able to motivate and inform helping students discover the richness of African American culture now and through time Honoring Tribal Legacies: Foundation document for honoring tribal legacies D. Michael Pavel,Ella Inglebret,Stephanie Gail Wood,2014

Lesson Plans Using Audio-visual Materials in Teaching on Three Grade Levels: Primary, Intermediate, Junior-senior High School Western Illinois University,1958 Bridging Cultures Between Home and School Elise Trumbull,Carrie Rothstein-Fisch,Patricia M. Greenfield,Blanca Quiroz,2001-04-01 Bridging Cultures Between Home and School A Guide for Teachers is intended to stimulate broad thinking about how to meet the challenges of education in a pluralistic society It is a powerful resource for in service and preservice multicultural education and professional development The Guide presents a framework for understanding differences and conflicts that arise in situations where school culture is more individualistic than the value system of the home It shares what researchers and teachers of the Bridging Cultures Project have learned from the experimentation of teacher researchers in their own classrooms of largely immigrant Latino students and explores other research on promoting improved home school relationships across cultures The framework leads to specific suggestions for supporting teachers to cross cultural communication organization parent teacher conferences that work use strategies that increase parent involvement in schooling increase their skills as researchers and employ ethnographic techniques to learn about home cultures Although the research underlying the Bridging Cultures Project and this Guide focuses on immigrant Latino families since this is the primary population with which the framework was originally used it is a potent tool for learning about other cultures as well because many face similar discrepancies between their own more collectivistic approaches to childrearing and schooling and the more individualistic approach of the dominant culture The World's Work ,1901 A history of our time The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp,1998 Lists all the resources needed to create a balanced curriculum for homeschooling from preschool to high school level Indian School Journal ,1909 Winds of Change ,2005 American River Watershed, California United States. Klein,1998 Contemporary California Indian Basketry Bev Ortiz,2008 Baskets have been woven for at least 10 000 years in the area now known as the western United States Originally created by California Indians as utilitarian objects for everyday family use by the late 1800s baskets had become a commodity that provided much needed income Collector interest in baskets resulted in an expanding literature that focused on their collectability promoted their making with largely store bought imported materials and compared their techniques of fabrication While most basketry literature whether scholarly or popular has largely concerned itself with the object form design materials technique and function since 1970 the literature on basketry has begun to shift its focus to the process and the weavers themselves The present study begins by surveying the worldwide literature about basketry with an emphasis on California Indian basketry It recounts the history of the practice of basketry in California which began to decline in the 1930s because of lack of need and interest the economics of the Depression and a desire to not stand out as Indian Attention then shifts to organizational efforts by California Indians since 1940 to reverse this trend By establishing basketry organizations California Indian women sought to gain respect for their cultures within the dominant society while at the same time rebuilding pride among the young Based on 30 years of field research with hundreds of California Indian basketmakers statewide the present study examines the effectiveness of organizational efforts to renew basketry as well as impediments to its continued practice including 1 lack of time to learn and weave and 2 lack of access to properly managed basketry materials growing in safe areas free from chemical contamination After detailing these issues and the solutions that California Indians have devised to resolve them the study illustrates the diverse reasons why California Indians continue to make baskets and the varied ways they learn through the stories of individual weavers including biographies of four elder basketmakers whose influence was widespread The humanity tenacity and resourcefulness of the weavers are highlighted as they continue to find new ways to bring an old practice into the future Manual Training Magazine Charles Alpheus Bennett,William Thomas Bawden,1920 The Bay View Magazine ,1907 Industrial Arts and Vocational Education ,1916 Resources in Education ,1983 Teaching Critically about Lewis and Clark Alison Schmitke,Leilani Sabzalian,Jeff Edmundson,2020 The Lewis and Clark Corps of Discovery is often presented as an exciting adventure story of discovery friendship patriotism However when viewed through a non colonial lens this same period in U S History can be understood quite differently In BEYOND ADVENTURE the authors provide a conceptual framework ready to use lesson plans and teaching resources to address oversimplified versions of the Lewis and Clark expedition
