Epistle To White Christians:

Epistle to White Christians Fred D. Wentzel, 1948 The Epistles for All Christians David Smith, 2020-09-25 In The Epistles for All Christians David Smith argues that epistolary literature offers analogous evidence of circulation to the Gospels Since Richard Bauckham's edited volume The Gospels for All Christians was published in 1998 debate over the validity of the contributors' claims that the Gospels were written for all Christians has revolved around interpretation Smith brings circulation to bear on the conversation Studying ancient media practices of publication and circulation and using social network theory Smith makes a compelling case that if the evangelists did not expect their texts to circulate they would be atypical The Social Worlds of Ancient Jews and Christians, 2022-11-21 This volume contains fifteen essays in honor of L. Michael White whose work has been influential in exploring the social histories of ancient Jews and Christians within the Graeco-Roman world Following an introduction that highlights some of White's main scholarly contributions the essays are grouped into three topic areas Paul and his Legacy Social Relations and Material Culture The essays are united by an interest in reconstructing the social worlds of ancient Jews and Christians through careful analysis of literary sources and material culture in their most precise ancient contexts The Epistle to the Hebrews, the First Apology for Christianity Alexander Balmain Bruce, 1899 NIVAC Bundle 7: Pauline Epistles Douglas J. Moo, Craig L. Blomberg, Scott J. Hafemann, Scot McKnight, Klyne Snodgrass, Frank S. Thielman, Daniel Garland, Michael W. Holmes, Walter L. Liefeld, 2015-11-03 The NIV Application Commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today's context To bring the ancient messages of the Bible into today's world each passage is treated in three sections Original Meaning Concise exegesis to help readers understand the original meaning of the biblical text in its historical literary and cultural context Bridging Contexts A bridge between the world of the Bible and the world of today built by discerning what is timeless in the timely pages of the Bible Contemporary Significance This section identifies comparable situations to those faced in the Bible and explores relevant application of the biblical messages The author alerts the readers of problems they may encounter when seeking to apply the passage and helps them think through the issues involved This unique award-winning commentary is the ideal resource for today's preachers teachers and serious students of the Bible giving them the tools ideas and insights they need to communicate God's Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written

The Epistle of James and Eschatology Todd Penner, 1996-05-01 The aim of this book is to challenge the common view that the epistle of James is a late Hellenistic Wisdom document that has little importance for our understanding of earliest Christianity The author undertakes two main projects first an examination of the various assumptions about date setting and content that have influenced how the letter of James has been interpreted and second a re-reading of the letter that seeks to uncover the special character of the epistle by stressing the fusion of its eschatological framework with its ethical instruction The literary cultural and social contextualization of James that emerges sheds new light on this often neglected text and its place in early Christianity Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible: First and Second Kings Roger Tones, 2019-06-18

This extract from the Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible provides Tones introduction to and concise commentary on First and Second Kings The Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible presents in nontechnical language the best of modern scholarship on each book of the Bible including the Apocrypha Reader friendly commentary complements succinct summaries of each section of the text and will be valuable to scholars students and general readers Rather than attempt a verse by verse analysis these volumes work from larger sense units highlighting the place of each passage within the overarching biblical story Commentators focus on the genre of each text parable prophetic oracle legal code and so on interpreting within the historical and literary context The volumes also address major issues within each biblical book including the range of possible interpretations and refer readers to the best resources for further discussions Christianity and the Contest for Manhood in Late Antiquity Nathan D. Howard, 2022-11-24 In this book Nathan Howard explores gender and identity formation in fourth century Cappadocia where pro Nicene bishops used a rhetoric of contest that aligned with conventions of classical Greek masculinity Howard demonstrates that epistolary exhibitions served as a locus for asserting manhood in the fourth century These performances illustrate how a culture of orality that had defined manhood among civic elites was reframed as a contest whereby one accrued status through merits of composition Howard shows how the Cappadocians rhetoric also reordered the body and materiality as components of a maleness over which they moderated He interrogates fourth century theological conflict as part of a rhetorical battle over claims to manhood that supported the Cappadocians theology and cast doubt on non Trinitarian rivals whom they cast as effeminate and disingenuous Investigating accounts of pro Nicene protagonists overcoming struggles Howard establishes that tropes based on classical standards of gender contributed to the formation of Trinitarian orthodoxy Orality and Literacy in Early Christianity Pieter Botha, 2012-11-01 The history of the Jesus movement and earliest Christianity requires careful attention to the characteristics and peculiarities of oral and literate traditions Understanding the distinctive elements of Greco Roman literacy potentially has profound implications for the historical understanding of the documents and events involved Concepts such as media criticism orality manuscript culture scribal writing and performative reading are explored in these chapters The scene of Greco Roman literacy is analyzed by investigating writing and reading practices These aspects are then related to early Christian texts such as the Gospel of Mark and sections from Paul s letters New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity, 4 Stephen Llewelyn, G. H. R. Horsley, 1997-12-02 This series seeks to keep New Testament and early church researchers teachers and students abreast of emerging documentary evidence by reproducing and reviewing recently published Greek inscriptions and papyri that illumine the context in which the Christian church developed Produced by the Ancient History Documentary Research Centre at Macquarie University the New Docs volumes broaden the context of biblical studies and other related fields and provide a better understanding of the historical and social milieus of early Christianity
