God's Wider Presence: Reconsidering General Revelation:

God's Wider Presence Robert K. Johnston, 2014-10-14 What are we to make of those occasional yet illuminating experiences of God's presence that occur outside both church and Scripture? We may encounter God's revelatory presence as we experience a beautiful sunset, the birth of a child, or a work of art, music, or literature. While theologians have tended to describe such experiences abstractly as mere traces or echoes, those involved often recognize such moments of transcendence as transformative. Here senior theologian Robert Johnston explores how Christians should think theologically about God's wider revelatory presence that is mediated outside the church through creation, conscience, and culture. The book offers a robust, constructive biblical theology of general revelation, rooting its insights in the broader Trinitarian work of the Spirit. Drawing in part from the author's theological engagement with film and the arts, the book helps Christians understand personal moments of experiencing God's transcendence and accounts for revelatory experiences of those outside the believing community. It also shows how God's revelatory presence can impact our interaction with nonbelievers and those of other faiths.

The Father and the Feminine Spencer Miles Boersma, 2024-09-12 How should Christians speak of the transcendent yet personal God when our language for persons is almost always gendered? Is male imagery such as Father, Son, or King the only appropriate way? Are there ways to talk of God using female gendered metaphors and pronouns? And how does the use of such language impact humans as gendered people? Moving beyond the extremes in this debate, The Father and the Feminine seeks to clarify the ways Christians speak about God, whether this is by recognizing revelation and Christian tradition upholding God's ineffability using analogies, metaphors, and narratives referring to God as Father, Son, and Spirit, or by seeking a liberating way of life in community. Spencer Miles Boersma argues that male language for God need not be problematic if used and understood correctly, but at the same time that it cannot be the exclusive way Christians speak of the Divine. The grammar of Christian Scripture and tradition both authorize the use of female language, which Christians ought to use in pursuing a deeper relationship with God and others as well as a more authentic view of self Naming the Spirit W. David O. Taylor, Daniel Train, 2025-09-02 Discover the deep connection between theology the arts and the work of the Holy Spirit in Naming the Spirit In this book W David O Taylor and Daniel Train bring together a remarkable group of theologians scholars and artists to offer a fresh perspective on pneumatology through the creative lens of the arts Each chapter unpacks a particular name for the Holy Spirit and examines its significance using examples from a variety of artistic mediums music poetry visual art film and even landscape architecture Far from being just a theoretical exploration the book seeks to be a catalyst for renewal in theology and the arts aiming to inspire new avenues of thought and engagement within classrooms churches and beyond Curated by Taylor and Train two leading voices in theology and the arts Naming the Spirit is a rich interdisciplinary work that promises to deepen our understanding of the Holy Spirit s work in the world through the profound lens of artistic expression This book is an essential resource for professors students ministry leaders and artists who are looking to enrich their understanding of art in relation to the Holy Spirit Order Naming the Spirit today and discover a new way to engage with the Holy Spirit through the beauty of the arts Religion and Popular Culture in America, Third Edition Bruce David Forbes, Jeffrey H. Mahan, 2017-03 Since 2000 Religion and Popular Culture in America has been one of the standard books used in teaching this area of study Modestly updated in 2005 it continues to be taught in colleges universities and theological schools across the continent The basic four part structure of Religion and Popular Culture in America remains sound and is a feature that appeals to many who have taught the volume Section One Religion in Popular Culture examines the way traditional religious symbols narratives and forms of religious practice appear in popular culture Section Two Popular Culture in Religion considers how religion takes on and is reshaped by styles and values of popular culture Section Three Popular Culture as Religion explores the ways that aspects of popular culture and their reception might be considered to be forms of religion Section Four Religion and Popular Culture in Dialogue introduces religiously based critiques of popular culture and ways that popular culture articulates common critiques of religion The third edition maintains the structure and basic length of the current edition and retains Forbes introductory framework and update versions of key essay But they replace many of the more dated subjects with new material drawing on more contemporary examples A concluding essay by Mahan organizes key insights from the essays and relates them to the theories of popular culture illuminated in the introduction Provided by publisher Gospel as Work of Art David Brown, 2024-03-07 A lushly illustrated magisterial exploration of the imaginative truth of the gospel In the modern academy truth and imagination are thought to be mutually exclusive But what if truth can spring from other fonts like art literature and invention The legacy of the Enlightenment favors historical and empirical inquiry above all other methods for searching for truth But this assumption constrains our theological explorations Though the historicity of Jesus s life death and resurrection is important it is not the only thing that matters For instance is John s Gospel any less true than the Synoptics just because it s less historically accurate David Brown challenges us to expand our understanding of the gospel past source criticism and historical Jesus studies to include works of imagination Reading Scripture in tandem with works of art throughout the centuries Brown reenvision the gospel as an open text Scholars of theology and biblical studies freed from literalism will find new avenues of revelation in Gospel as Work of Art This volume includes over one hundred color illustrations Redeeming Transcendence in the Arts Jeremy Begbie, 2018-02-14 How can the arts witness to the transcendence of the Christian God Many people believe that there is something transcendent about the arts that they can awaken a profound sense of awe wonder and mystery of something beyond this world even for those who may have no use for conventional forms of Christianity In this book Jeremy Begbie a leading voice on theology and the arts employs a biblical Trinitarian imagination to show how Christian involvement in the arts can be shaped by the distinctive vision of God's transcendence opened up in and through Jesus Christ

A Teachable Spirit A. J. Swoboda, 2025-04-29 Being a know it all isn't a fruit of the Spirit But the ancient call of Jesus beckons us to love the Lord your God with all your heart mind soul and strength Matt 22:37 How do we love God with our mind In A Teachable Spirit A J Swoboda helps followers of Jesus develop the discipline of teachability In a world marked by distraction mind numbing entertainment endless content polarization and a decreasing desire to humbly learn from those we dislike the way we engage sources of information like news media science and social media content could not be more important Thankfully the Christian faith provides sharp tools and rich traditions for learning how to be the best learners By drawing on his experiences as a professor theologian and lay pastor Swoboda explores the potency of seeing learning as a part of one's spiritual formation to Jesus With the right posture Christians can learn from even the most unexpected places

The Dardenne Brothers' Cinematic Parables Joel Mayward, 2022-09-30 The Dardenne Brothers Cinematic Parables examines the work of Belgian filmmakers Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne who have been celebrated for their powerfully affecting social realist films Though the Dardenne brothers films rarely mention religion or God they have received wide recognition for their moral complexity and spiritual resonance This book brings the Dardennes filmography into consideration with theological aesthetics Christian ethics phenomenological film theory and continental philosophy The author explores the brothers nine major films beginning with The Promise 1996 and culminating in Young Ahmed 2019 through the hermeneutics of philosopher Paul Ricoeur By using Ricoeur's description of parable as a narrative metaphor which generates an existential limit experience Joel Mayward crafts an innovative Ricoeurian hermeneutic for making theological interpretations of cinema Drawing upon resources from three disciplinary spheres theology philosophy and film studies in a dynamic interweaving approach Mayward proposes that the Dardennes create postsecular cinematic parables which evoke theological and ethical responses in audiences imaginations through the brothers distinctive filmmaking style what is termed transcendent realism The book ultimately demonstrates how the Dardenne brothers are truly doing not merely depicting theology and ethics through the cinematic form it presents film as theology what Mayward refers to as theocinematics This is valuable reading for scholars of theology philosophy and film studies as well as film critics and cinephiles interested in the cinema of the Dardenne brothers

The Flourishing Family Dr. David Erickson, Amanda Erickson, 2024-09-17 When it comes to Christian parenting we crave confidence wisdom and most of all peace We pray for peace when our little ones are tossed about by waves of emotions for connection and confidence when navigating stressful mornings and exhausting nights and for wisdom in knowing how best to discipline our kids As Christian parents we re desperate to get it right to raise our children to be strong courageous followers of Jesus and yet despite the overload of endless advice at our fingertips we often feel completely and utterly lost You can become the parent Christ has called you to be and change your home and family from the inside out In The Flourishing Family Dr David and Amanda Erickson offer a new parenting perspective one that cultivates peace gentleness and confidence Deeply rooted in Scripture and backed by modern neuroscience as well as insight into child development their book will equip you to rethink common assumptions about what the Bible says about parenting and align your parenting approach with the teachings of Jesus and your identity in Him cultivate the inner peace needed to lead and guide your family with Christ and His grace at the center critically assess various gentle parenting principles through a Gospel lens so that you can respond to your child with understanding and patience honoring the divine image and unique personality God created them to have and use compassionate discipline as discipleship to focus on the heart behind your child s actions addressing the developmental or neurological roots of their behavior rather than merely correcting or punishing their actions or choices Your legacy is not defined by your parenting perfection but by your commitment to follow in the way of Jesus and to trust His Spirit to cultivate the seeds you re diligently planting throughout your children s lives Trust that He will meet you in these pages and that He will transform your hearts and home

Hope for the Oppressor Patrick Oden, 2019-07-26 The liberating work of God calls the oppressed out of oppression and the oppressor out of oppressing The challenge in seeking a thorough liberation of oppressors is to help them understand their need for freedom and how to seek this freedom in their own contexts Patrick Oden provides a holistic biblical historical and theological analysis that diagnoses the underlying motivations and inclinations that lead to oppression Part one addresses the context of oppression in which most participants in oppression do not actively seek to harm others but are caught up in systems that tend toward the diminishment of others Part two examines the biblical and early Christian response to oppression discovering a thread that avoids condemning participation in society generally while also cautioning the people of God about being co opted by society Part three discusses how oppressors can withdraw from oppression through a constructive analysis of four contemporary theologians Wolfhart Pannenberg J rgen Moltmann Sarah Coakley and Jean Vanier each of whom contributes to a widening vision of liberated and liberating life in which the once oppressed and former oppressor can find peace together in community

Transcendence and Spirituality in Chinese Cinema Kris H.K Chong,2020-05-27 This book provides a framework by which a global audience might think theologically about contemporary films produced in mainland China by Chinese directors Up to this point the academic discipline of Christian theology and film has focussed predominantly on Western cinema and as a result has missed out the potential insights offered by Chinese spirituality on film Mainland Chinese films produced within the nation s social structure offer an excellent lingua franca of China Illuminating the spiritual imagination of Chinese filmmakers and their yearning for transcendence the book uses Richard A Blake s concept of afterimage to analyse the potential theological implications of their films It then brings Jürgen Moltmann s immanent transcendence and Robert K Johnston s God s wider Presence into conversation with Confucianist and Daoist ideas of there being spirituality speaking More in Life than Meets the Eye than simply material existence This all combines to move beyond film and allow for a Western audience to gain a new perspective on Chinese culture and traditions One that uses familiar Western terms while avoiding the imposition of a Western mindset This is a new perspective on cinema religion and Chinese culture that will be of keen interest to scholars of Religion and Film Religious Studies Theology Sociology of Religion and Chinese Studies

The Art of New Creation Jeremy Begbie,Daniel Train,W. David O. Taylor,2022-03-29 Creation and the new creation are inextricably bound for the God who created the world is the same God who promises a new heaven and a new earth Bringing together theologians biblical scholars and artists this volume based on the DITA10 conference at Duke Divinity School explores how the relation between creation and the new creation is informed by and reflected in the arts

Sport and Christianity Matt Hoven,Andrew Parker,Nick J. Watson,2019-10-31 Many people are passionate about sport yet few give thought to its role and importance in their lives let alone its relationship to Christian faith This book examines the potential of sports and challenges readers to consider how it relates to their deepest passions behaviours and actions while providing newcomers to the field with a framework to help consider the connection between sports participation and faith based values Featuring academic writers from a range of disciplinary fields including philosophy theology sports studies and education Sport and Christianity Practices for the Twenty First Century sheds insight into the meaning of sports for Christians as participants and as practitioners Divided into practises for the mind for the heart and for moral life the numerous topics include the value of play in sports sports as a means for dialogue between faith traditions sports as a place to cultivate virtue and the Christian spiritual life and prayer and religious experiences in sports The result is a text that promotes new ways of thinking about the sports Christianity relationship while at the same time developing a deeper understanding of the place of sports in our everyday lives From Chaos to Ambiguity Jeremy Hunt, 2024-10-29 A love letter to the sonic maelstrom that is noise rock From Chaos to Ambiguity charts a path of exploration through a fertile but often ignored genre of music tracing its history through roots in both punk and no wave into the full fruition of noisy madness This text puts these transgressive sounds into dialogue with various strains of subversive theology inviting readers into borderland spaces where the brokenness of humanity can both be fully embraced and traversed into healing liberation and celebration Transforming Mission Theology Charles Van Engen, 2017-10-01 Missiology Permeated with Theological Reflection This volume is the culmination of Van Engen's teachings but takes us to an even deeper level Since mission is first and foremost God's mission theological reflection must be permeated by missiological understanding and our missiology must be permeated with theological reflection Mission theology is an activity of the Church of Jesus Christ seeking to understand more deeply why how when where and wherefore the followers of Jesus may participate in God's mission in God's world Reading Theology Wisely Kent Eilers, 2022-05-24 Could reading theology turn you toward God in astonished worship Could it enliven your reading of Scripture Could it move you toward your true self in Christ Could it turn you toward your neighbors in self giving love Could it unmask your prejudices Could it dethrone your idols Should we hope for anything less In this illuminating introduction Kent Eilers invites Christians of all backgrounds into the practice of reading theology With a classroom tested approach Eilers shows how theology can form the imagination and enhance the human capacity for perceiving reality beyond the surface of things allowing Christians to see and experience God in the everyday He then guides readers through the essential facets of theology so that it can begin to feel familiar and accessible even and especially to beginners with no prior experience Written conversationally and illustrated beautifully with art by Chris Koelle Reading Theology Wisely is welcoming and engaging in every respect Eilers takes a well rounded approach to his subject utilizing Scripture and the wisdom of past thinkers as well as references to film and the arts including a special emphasis on architecture as part of an ongoing metaphor of inhabiting texts as we do physical spaces Each chapter ends with a prayer and questions for reflection and discussion followed by a theology lab in which readers can put the content of the preceding chapter into practice
