any electrical and mechanical parts have come to the attention of the manufacturer. There are of course numerous other causes of breakdown, but the problem is identified by the fact increasingly the driver is given the opportunity to intervene in order to repair an engine, steering, etc. breakdown before it can cause further damage.

Problems arise in 1987 that in the 1980s there were not. Electronic systems are making their way into the car, and the car is becoming more of a computer.
