Assessing Reading 1: Theory and Practice Colin Harrison, Terry Salinger, 2002-01-04 This book along with its companion volume Assessing Reading 2 Changing Practice in Classrooms was originally conceived as the major outcome from an international seminar on reading assessment held in England It focuses particularly on theoretical and methodological issues though with a clear series of links to practices in assessment especially state and national approaches to classroom based assessment in the USA the UK and in Australia at both primary and secondary levels Chapters offer new perspectives on the theories that underlie the development and interpretation of reading assessments national assessments and classroom based assessment challenging readers to think in different ways Echnology Assessment in Software Applications Harold F. O'Neil, Jr., Eva Baker, Harold F. O'Neil, 2013-11-05 This volume offers an expansion of ideas presented at a recent conference convened to identify the major strategies and more promising practices for assessing technology The authors representing government business and university sectors helped to set the boundaries of present technology assessment by offering perspectives from computer science cognitive and military psychology and education Their work explores both the use of techniques to assess technology and the use of technology to facilitate the assessment process The book s main purpose is to portray the state of the art in technology assessment and to provide conceptual options to help readers understand the power of technology Technological innovation will continue to develop its own standards of practice and effectiveness To the extent that these practices are empirically based designers supporters and consumers will be given better information for their decisions

Learning to Read and Write in One Elementary School Connie Juel, 2012-12-06 When a fourth grade student Jenny was asked about reading she stated I love to read you get real neat ideas I really like books about animals and biographies I m writing my autobiography now Oh I also really like Judy Blume books Her enthusiasm for reading is evident as she tells you about the Judy Blume book she just read Are You There God It s Me Margaret 1970 Jenny reads almost every night at home Jenny s classmate through 4 years of elementary school Anna responds when asked about reading I hate to read it s boring Anna says she never reads at home She says she d rather watch television or play with friends Anna would even rather clean her room than read She explains I d rather clean my room because it makes the room look neat Reading makes my head hurt because it s so boring and no fun Jenny and Anna attended a large neighborhood elementary school in Austin Texas The school is located in a lower socioeconomic status SES area of small houses duplexes mld apartments About 45% of the children at the school are Hispanic 35% are African American and 20% are Anglo The school consistently ranks mnong the lowest schools in the district on standardized reading achievement tests Upon entering first grade neither Jenny nor Anna could read the words that were to appear in their first preprimer reader
