Activity 1: Fear Throughout this chapter, the boys begin to discuss the possibility of a beast on the island. The littluns are very clearly scared, while the older boys express different fears of their own in indirect ways. List all fears the boys have and an explanation of why that is an accurate fear.

Character	Fear

Activity 2: Reflection Reflect on the below text, direct quote from the text, as well as a guiding question, use the below questions to help you structure your reflection and response.

- When did you think?
- Did you have a reaction (positively/emotionally) to what one of the characters said or did?
- Why might the character be acting the way they did?
- Can you relate to any of the characters?
- How would you react if you were in their shoes?

common on the island. While he sleeps, these animals surround him. Have you ever experienced a situation similar to this? Doesn't have to be as serious, but think of a time where you were disoriented and had to act and adjust quickly to your surroundings.

Ralph shook the skin off his knuckles. They did not seem to hurt. "I thought 'You've got to make sense. Can't you see the mountain?' There's no signal showing. There may be a ship out there. Are you all off your rockers?" Mutuously the boys fell silent or muttering, jacked the way down the rock and across the bridge.

Both Ralph and Jack have a power struggle throughout this chapter. Ralph keeps stating that he is the leader, while Jack makes himself the leader by going through the forest and seeing how it is.

"I shouted Jack. 'You don't need to be a leader. You ought to say what you think. You're speaking, or you're not speaking. You're shouting or you're not shouting.'

He said on the spot—where he was to fall in line and be quiet, while he was making a decision. Have you ever been in a situation similar? Where you were supposed to keep quiet and let others do the talking? Did you fall in line or did you speak up? What good can speaking up and voicing your opinion do?

Use the text evidence in the boxes below, answer each question, and use quotes from the text to support your answer!

1. How does the figure attached to the power of the boys' reactions?

2. How does the figure attached to the power of the boys' reactions?
