Lovedale Application Dates 2016:

The Times Do Not Permit Christine Lucia, 2024-10-01 This biography of Michael Mosoeu Moerane 1904 1980 surveys the unique life times and music of the first classically educated African composer in southern Africa Home is where Your Politics are Jessica A. Scott, 2024 Home Is Where Your Politics Are is a vivid consideration of queer and trans activism in the US South and South Africa situated in their own contexts and international narratives about those contexts The book traverses international borders as boldly as the activists present in the text declare these spaces home Publishing from the South Sarah Nuttall, Isabel Hofmeyr, 2024-11 In 2022 Wits University Press marked its centenary making it the oldest most established university press in sub Saharan Africa While in part modelled on scholarly publishers from the global North it has had to contend with the constraints of working under global South conditions marginalisation within the university budgetary limitations small local markets unequal access to international sales channels and the privileging of English language publishing over indigenous languages This volume explores what the Press has achieved and what its modes of reinvention might look like In widening and deepening our understanding of the Press as an example of a global South scholarly publisher this volume asks how publishing can contribute to a broader understanding of Southern knowledge production Featuring contributions from scholars publishers and authors this multi voiced volume showcases the history of the Press s publishing activities over 100 years from documenting its evolution through book covers and giving credence to some of the leading black intellectuals and writers of the early 20th century and the success of those works in spite of their authors racial marginalisation to the role of women both in publishing and in the spaces afforded to women s writing on the Press s list The collection concludes with essays by contemporary authors who detail not only their experiences of working with Southern publishers but also the politics and influences governing their decisions to choose the Press over a Northern publisher Publishing from the South shows the strategies deployed by the Press to professionalise Southern knowledge making and in the process demonstrating how university presses in the global South support the scholarly missions of their universities for both local and global audiences The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope, 1947

Sol Plaatje's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokae, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje s Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa s most important literary works Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written Page 4 of cover The Activist Collector Christa Clarke, 2023-02-17 Published by the Newark Museum Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press After twenty eight years of desire and determination I have visited Africa the land of my forefathers So wrote Lida Clanton Broner 1895 1982 an African American housekeeper and hairstylist from Newark New Jersey upon her return from an extraordinary nine month journey to South Africa in 1938 This epic trip was motivated not only by Broner s sense of ancestral heritage but also a grassroots resolve to connect the socio political concerns of African Americans with those of black South Africans under the segregationist policies of the time During her travels this woman of modest means circulated among South Africa s Black intellectual elite including many leaders of South Africa s freedom struggle Her lectures at Black schools on race consciousness and race pride had a decidedly political bent even as she was presented as an American beauty specialist How did Broner a working class mother come to be a globally connected activist What were her experiences as an African American woman in segregated South Africa and how did she further her work after her return Broner s remarkable story is the subject of this book which draws upon a deep visual and documentary record now held in the collection of the Newark Museum of Art This extraordinary archive includes more than one hundred and fifty objects ranging from beadwork and pottery to mission school crafts acquired by Broner in South Africa along with her diary correspondence scrapbooks and hundreds of photographs with handwritten notations

Farmer's Weekly ,1925     Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2007

Children of Hope Sandra Rowoldt Shell,2018-08-20 In Children of Hope Sandra Rowoldt Shell traces the lives of sixty four Oromo children who were enslaved in Ethiopia in the late nineteenth century liberated by the British navy and ultimately sent to Lovedale Institution a Free Church of Scotland mission in the Eastern Cape South Africa for their safety Because Scottish missionaries in Yemen interviewed each of the Oromo children shortly after their liberation we have sixty four structured life histories told by the children themselves In the historiography of slavery and the slave trade first passage narratives are rare groups of such narratives even more so In this analytical group biography or prosopography Shell renders the experiences of the captives in detail and context that are all the more affecting for their dispassionate presentation Comparing the children by gender age place of origin method of capture identity and other characteristics Shell enables new insights unlike anything in the existing literature for this region and period Children of Hope is supplemented by graphs maps and illustrations that carefully detail the demographic and geographic layers of the children s origins and lives after capture In this way Shell honors the individual stories of each child while also placing them into invaluable and multifaceted contexts

The Education Gazette Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department,1947     Learning Spaces in Africa Ola Uduku,2018-06-14 With a key UN Sustainable Development Goal for 2030 being to make basic education available to all the world s children Learning Spaces in Africa explores the architectural socio political and economic policy factors that have contributed to school design the main spaces for education and learning in Africa It traces the development of school building design focusing on Western and Southern Africa from its emergence in the 19th century to the present day Uduku s analysis draws attention to the past historic links of schools to development processes from their early 19th century missionary origins to their re emergence as development hubs in the 21st century Learning Spaces in Africa uses this research as a basis to suggest fundamental changes to basic education which respond to new technological advances and constituencies in learning Illustrated case studies describe the use of tablets in refugee community schools hole in the wall learning and shared school community learning spaces This book will be beneficial for students academics and those interested in the history of educational architecture and its effect on social development particularly in Africa and with relevance to countries elsewhere in the emerging world

Print Culture in Southern Africa Caroline Davis, Archie Dick, Elizabeth le Roux, Dennis Walder, 2021-07-29 Print Culture in Southern Africa is concerned with the institutions and processes informing textual production circulation and consumption in the region over a broad historical period from the late 18th century to the present day The book is organised around three closely related themes Firstly it presents original research into the formation of reading publics and the impact of reading cultures by uncovering obscure but important reading communities and circuits of book distribution and reception A second theme is the relationship between print and politics with a particular focus on the networks of power how control over the production and circulation of printed books has shaped literary and cultural development The third theme is transnational print culture and how the control exercised by publishers in Europe and America has shaped literature and society in southern Africa Drawing together interdisciplinary research and diverse methodologies the collection encompasses a range of perspectives including literary studies anthropology publishing studies the history of the book and art history and many of the chapters are based on previously unexamined archives and collections The volume contributes to current debates and opens up new and exciting ways of furthering the study of postcolonial literature and African book history The chapters included in this book were originally published in the Journal of Southern African Studies

Convening Black Intimacy Natasha Erlank, 2022-11-08 An unprecedented study of how Christianity reshaped Black South Africans ideas about gender sexuality marriage and family during the first half of the twentieth century This book demonstrates that the primary affective force in the construction of modern Black intimate life in early twentieth century South Africa was not the commonly cited influx of migrant workers but rather the spread of Christianity During the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries African converts developed a new conception of intimate life one that shaped ideas about sexuality gender roles and morality Although the reshaping of Black intimacy occurred first among educated Africans who aspired to middle class status by the 1950s it included all Black Christians 60 percent of the Black South African population In turn certain Black traditions and customs were central to the acceptance of sexual modernity which gained traction because it included practices such as lobola in which a bridegroom demonstrates his gratitude by transferring property to his bride s family While the ways of understanding intimacy that Christianity informed enjoyed broad appeal because they partially aligned with traditional ways other individuals were drawn to how the new ideas broke with tradition In either case Natasha Erlank argues that what Black South Africans regard today as tradition has been unequivocally altered by Christianity In asserting the paramount influence of Christianity on unfolding ideas about family gender and marriage in Black South Africa Erlank challenges social historians who have attributed the key factor to be the migrant labor system Erlank draws from a wide range of sources including popular Black literature and the Black press African church and mission archives and records of the South African law courts which she argues have been underutilized in histories of South Africa The book is sure to attract historians and other scholars interested in the history of African Christianity African families sexuality and the social history of law especially colonial law Australian Wine

Vintages Robert Geddes,2011 The 29th edition of Australian Wine Vintages or the Gold Book as it is affectionately known offers more than ever before to wine drinkers and collectors This new edition has over 4000 wine reviews and focuses on the highest quality producers and wines which represent excellent value British Royal Visits and Black Loyalism in Twentieth-century Southern Africa Hilary Sapire,2024-10-31 Exploring the entwined histories of British royal visits to Southern Africa in the twentieth century this book analyses the clashing voices of dissent and cheering crowds that accompanied royal tours providing insight into the shifting nature of Black loyalism Originating in the Indigenous empire loyalism of eighteenth century Canada Black loyalism encompassed loyalty to the British crown and a shared ideology of rights and entitlements which positioned the crown as a source of protection against white settler rapacity colonial violence and racial oppression However expressions of monarchical devotion were often double edged and addressed the fundamental contradiction of a crown that was both the source of rights and complicit in colonial conquest appropriation and misrule It was on royal occasions such as jubilees coronation celebrations and especially royal visits when the sovereign was literally amongst their more distant subjects that loyalist sentiment was rekindled reinvented and made directly relevant to the concerns of the day By analysing change and continuity in Black perspectives towards both the British and Indigenous African monarchy during these visits this book offers a fruitful way into examining an array of Black Southern African discourses on governance political values and cultural identities across the region It argues that the refashioning of British imperial monarchy in the twentieth century was profoundly shaped by African initiatives and re imaginings and provides valuable reading for those researching imperialism popular attitudes to the British monarchy in the twentieth century and the diverse politics and identities of southern Africa The Routledge Handbook of Linguistic Prescriptivism Joan C.

Beal,Morana Lukač,Robin Straaijer,2023-05-05 This Handbook provides a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of the field of linguistic prescriptivism Mapping the current status quo of the field and marking its two decade transformation into a serious field of study within linguistics this volume addresses both the value and the methods of studying prescriptivism It covers Theoretical and methodological approaches from historical to experimental approaches and including corpus based methods and attitudes research Contexts in which prescriptive efforts can be both observed and studied including education technology the media language planning and policies and everyday grassroots practices Geographical contexts of prescriptivism featuring chapters on inner and outer circle Englishes English as a Lingua Franca as well as prescriptivism in the context of other world languages including minority and endangered languages With contributions from an international line up of leading and rising star scholars in the field The Routledge Handbook of Linguistic Prescriptivism marks the evolution of linguistics as a fully self aware discipline and will be an indispensable guide for students and researchers in this area

Female Entrepreneurs in the Long Nineteenth Century Jennifer Aston, Catherine Bishop, 2020-07-29 This volume challenges those who see gender inequalities invariably defining and constraining the lives of women But it also broadens the conversation about the degree to which business is a gender blind institution owned and managed by entrepreneurs whose gender identities shape and reflect economic and cultural change Mary A Yeager Professor Emerita University of California Los Angeles This is the first book to consider nineteenth century businesswomen from a global perspective moving beyond European and trans Atlantic frameworks to include many other corners of the world The women in these pages who made money and business decisions for themselves rather than as employees ran a wide variety of enterprises from micro businesses in the grey market to large factories with international reach They included publicans and farmers midwives and property developers milliners and plumbers pirates and shopkeepers Female Entrepreneurs in the Long Nineteenth Century A Global Perspective rejects the notion that nineteenth century women were restricted to the home Despite a variety of legal and structural restrictions they found ways to make important but largely unrecognised contributions to economies around the world many in business Their impact on the economy and the economy's impact on them challenge gender historians to think more about business and business historians to think more about gender and create a global history that is inclusive of multiple perspectives Chapter one of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com

Dear Comrade President André Odendaal, 2022-08-01 In his annual presidential address on 8 January 1986 ANC president Oliver Tambo called on South Africans to make apartheid ungovernable through armed action and militant struggle But unknown to the world on that very day the quiet spoken mathematics teacher and aspirant priest turned reluctant revolutionary had also set up a secret think tank in Lusaka which he named the Constitution Committee giving it an ad hoc unique exercise that had no precedent in the history of the movement Knowing that all wars end at a negotiating table and judging the balance of forces to be moving in favour of the liberation movement Tambo wanted the ANC to hold the initiative after the fall of apartheid Assisted by Pallo Jordan he instructed his new think tank to formulate the principles and draft the outlines of a constitution that could unite South Africa when the time came to talk in the fledgling days of freedom and democracy The seven member team including Albie Sachs Kader Asmal and Zola Skweyiya started deliberating and reporting to Tambo In correspondence they typically addressed him as Dear Comrade President Drawing on the personal archives of participants Dear Comrade President explains how the purposeful first steps were taken in the making of South Africa's Constitution Why and how did this process happen What were the first written words When and where were they put on paper By whom What values did they espouse And how did the committee's work fit into the broader struggle This book

answers these questions in new paradigm shifting ways

The American Medical Association on the Case for Teaching Racism Francis Kwarteng, 2021-04-26 The public lynching of George Floyd re exposed the rotten underbelly of America and this together with the disproportionate impact of COVID 19 on Black and Brown communities the global Black Lives Matter protests and the racist xenophobic demagoguery of Donald Trump resurrected the old debates about medical racism race relations implicit bias vaccine nationalism vaccine imperialism structural inequality police brutality vaccine hesitancy unethical human experimentation vaccine diplomacy qualified immunity conspiracy theories and social justice Then in 2020 the American Medical Association formally declared racism a public health crisis defined racism as a social determinant of health and embraced the idea of medical schools teaching medical students about racism Alas the nursing curriculum is somewhat silent on these questions Decolonizing the nursing curriculum long overdue is therefore imperative This book explores the question of decolonizing the nursing curriculum from the angles of postcolonial theory critiquing the Western literary canon American history literary criticism African literature cultural criticism Afrocentric theory democracy African American literature and critical race theory

Transnational Perspectives on Curriculum History Gary McCulloch, Ivor Goodson, Mariano González-Delgado, 2019-11-22 This book offers a remarkable range of research that emphasises the need to analyse the shaping of curricula under historical social and political variables Teachers life stories the Cold War as a contextual element that framed curricular transformations in the US and Europe and the study of trends in education policy at transnational level are issues addressed throughout The book presents new lines of work offering multidisciplinary perspectives and provides an overview of how to move forwards The book brings together the work of international specialists on Curriculum History and presents research that offers new perspectives and methodologies from which to approach the study of the History of Education and Educational Policy It offers new debates which rethink the historical study of the curriculum and offers a strong interdisciplinary approach with contributions across Education History and the Social Sciences This book will be of great interest for academics and researchers in the fields of education and curriculum studies It will also appeal to educational professionals teachers and policy makers
