

when you ask him directly, which most folks have failed not to do. When he does speak you wonder if he isn't some sort of alien who sees the landscape of human ideas and experiences differently than everybody else.

The thing is, he usually makes uncomfortable issues in a world where most folks would rather just hear what they are used to hearing, which is often not much of anything. Those who know him generally like him well enough, providing he keeps his thoughts mostly to himself. And when he does talk, it isn't that they stop thinking him—rather, they are not quite so satisfied with themselves.

Black Once told me that he used to speak his mind more freely in his younger years, but he admitted that most of such talk was a married mechanism to cover his fears; he often ended up spreading his pain on everyone around him. He says that he had a way of putting out people's fears and humiliating them while maintaining his own sense of false power and control that was unending.

As I put these words, I reflect on the Monk I've always known—quite ordinary, and certainly not anyone particularly special, except to those who truly know him. He is just about to turn fifty-six, and he is a rather uncomfortable, slightly overweight, balding, short white guy, which describes a lot of men in these parts. You probably wouldn't notice him in a crowd or feel uncomfortable sitting next to him while he stands on the hotel lawn talking during his semi-weekly trips into town for a sales meeting. He does most of his work from a little home office at his place up on Indian Road, the villa, something high tech and geeky that I don't pretend to understand because genius that somehow makes everything go faster, so if life weren't going fast enough already.

You don't realize how smart Black is unless you happen to something on a dialogue he might be having with an expert. I've been there, when suddenly the language being spoken hardly resembles English, and I find myself struggling to grasp the concepts spilling out like a bubbling river of geniusness. He can speak intelligently about just anything, and even though you sense he has strong convictions, he has a gentle way about him that lets you keep yours.

His favorite topics are all about God and Creation and why people believe what they do. His eyes light up and he gets this smile that curls at the corners of his lips, and suddenly, like a little kid, the darkness melts away and he becomes agreeable and hardly able to contain himself. But at the same time, which is not very religious, he seems to have a love/hate relationship with Uncertain Regional Urbanism in Venezuela Fabio Capra Ribeiro, 2020-11-02 Uncertain Regional Urbanism in Venezuela explores the changes cities face when they become metropolises forming expanding regions which create both potential and problems within settlements. To do so it focuses on three metropolitan areas located in Venezuela's Center North region: Caracas, Maracay and Valencia, designated as Camavita. Considering three core topics: government and territorial administration, infrastructure and environment, as well as looking at the reciprocal impact, this book describes and analyzes the determinant variables that characterize the phenomenon of regional urbanization in this area and in the wider Global South. It includes documentary research, semi-structured interviews and Delphi methodology involving a total of forty experts from different disciplines to build a comprehensive outlook on the situation. This book presents a broader understanding of the region to encourage a more sustainable and knowledge-based development plan moving away from the exploitation of natural resources with six future-oriented scenarios to consider. This is a much-needed study in the urban regions of Venezuela which will be of interest to academics and researchers in Latin American studies, the Global South, architecture and planning.

Jews, Food, and Spain Hélène Jawhara Piñer, 2022-11-22 2023 Gourmand World Cookbook Awards Best Jewish Food Culture Book 2022 National Jewish Book Award Finalist. A fascinating study that will appeal to both culinarians and readers interested in the intersecting histories of food, Sephardic Jewish culture and the Mediterranean world of Iberia and northern Africa. In the absence of any Jewish cookbook from the pre-1492 era, it requires arduous research and a creative but disciplined imagination to reconstruct Sephardic tastes from the past and their survival and transmission in communities around the Mediterranean in the early modern period, followed by the even more extensive diaspora in the New World. In this intricate and absorbing study, Hélène Jawhara Piñer presents readers with the dishes, ingredients, techniques and aesthetic principles that make up a sophisticated and attractive cuisine one that has had a mostly unremarked influence on modern Spanish and Portuguese recipes

Ojo sociológico Jesús M. de Miguel, 2022 Esta obra aborda la investigación de la realidad social con imágenes. Analiza el canon visual centrándose en las imágenes en movimiento conocidas como documentales y también como videos. Estudia en detalle una docena de los mejores proyectos visuales realizados en los últimos cien años. Se complementa con las películas accesibles gratuitamente con los enlaces Web que se reseñan en cada capítulo especialmente en Youtube. Presenta además una decena de películas híbridas entre ficción y documental que sirven para seguir investigando. Se trata de un texto leído para las diversas ciencias sociales. Su objetivo es doble. En primer lugar analiza la forma en que las imágenes en movimiento películas documentales y videos muestran la realidad contribuyendo al mismo tiempo al cambio social. En segundo lugar motiva y estimula para que las personas que lean el texto y visionen los filmes decidan algún día producir documentales sociales similares. La sociología visual está poco desarrollada en España pero es cada vez más importante. A su lectura hay que agregar la de la monografía Sociología Visual de Jesús M. De Miguel y Carmelo Pinto accesible próximamente en abierto en la librería del CIS. Para cuestiones y preguntas se puede contactar directamente con el autor en mananaconsulting@gmail.com

Vivir sin mentiras Rod Dreher, 2021-05-05 En 1974 el escritor y disidente Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn publicó en vísperas de su destierro un mensaje final dirigido al pueblo ruso que llevaba por título Vivir sin mentiras en el que proclamaba que la mejor respuesta al totalitarismo soviético no era otra que el afecto y la fidelidad a la verdad. El periodista y escritor Rod Dreher, autor del aclamado La opción benedictina, hace en este libro de altavoz a Solzhenitsyn y otros muchos disidentes de Europa del Este que nos alertan del peligro no tan lejano de que Estados Unidos y el resto de Occidente estén abocados a un totalitarismo.

blando basado más en la manipulación psicológica que en la violencia abierta Dreher desvela algunos de los principales rasgos de este nuevo totalitarismo en el que la tecnología y el consumismo nos llevan a un estado de vigilancia empresarial y nos pone delante las historias y experiencias de estos disidentes sucedidas hace no tanto tiempo pero caídas en el olvido para ofrecer consejos prácticos sobre cómo identificar y resistir el totalitarismo en nuestro tiempo Mientras una revolución cultural apunta a la institucionalización de una tiranía de clichés ideológicos Dreher renueva el gran llamado de Solzhenitsyn a vivir sin mentiras No puedo imaginar un libro más oportuno ni urgente o uno con un mensaje espiritual político y cultural más
