Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system s structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level Holocaust Public Memory in Postcommunist Romania Alexandru

Florian, 2018-01-24 How is the Holocaust remembered in Romania since the fall of communism Alexandru Florian and an international group of contributors unveil how and why Romania a place where large segments of the Jewish and Roma populations perished still fails to address its recent past These essays focus on the roles of government and public actors that choose to promote construct defend or contest the memory of the Holocaust as well as the tools the press the media monuments and commemorations that create public memory Coming from a variety of perspectives these essays provide a compelling view of what memories exist how they are sustained how they can be distorted and how public remembrance of the Holocaust can be encouraged in Romanian society today Manual de limba română pentru clasa VII-a a seminariilor (conform programului din 1908) Gheorghe Adamescu, 1922 Non-Inclusive Education in Central and Eastern Europe Katarzyna Górak-Sosnowska, Urszula Markowska-Manista, 2022-11-03 This book presents research into inclusive education in Central and Eastern Europe CEE written by scholars based in CEE Inclusive education has become a framework for understanding and embracing diversity but most of the research in this area has been carried out in intercultural or culturally diverse settings within a relatively inclusive and open framework of democratic liberal and multicultural Western societies Unlike many Western societies the realities of CEE countries are often much less diverse and connected with different fragile historical and political processes which puts tackling sensitive topics in a different context The editors and contributors address the dominant Western ways of looking at inclusive and global education in CEE They argue that Western leveraged pedagogy has been imposed on CEE and outline the context specific problems of teaching global education in CEE Collectively the chapters offer critical responses to the issues of exclusion and exclusionary practices of silenced minorities in CEE Written by academics based in Czech Republic Germany Hungary Poland Romania and Russia the book cover topics including Roma genocide in Poland teaching about Islam and teaching about LGBTQ issues The book includes a preface written by Jacqueline Bhabha Professor of the Practice of Health and Human Rights at Harvard University
