Maurice Denis Albert Kostenevitch:

The Wisdom and Power of the Cross Richard Viladesau, 2020-09-17 The Wisdom and Power of the Cross is the fifth and final entry in Richard Viladesau's well-regarded series on the theology of the cross from the historical crucifixion of Jesus to the present day. Continuing his analysis of theological history through cultural contexts, this volume correlates theoretical approaches with artistic representations, showing the relation of theoretical to imaginative approaches. The Wisdom and Power of the Cross examines modern and contemporary thought and images which look at the cross in the light of modern historical and scriptural studies, science, and the novelties of modern and post-modern art and music. Viladesau here considers how the passion of Christ has been thought about by theologians and portrayed by artists in the modern world. Contemporary art and music reveal the lasting power of traditional images of the passion as well as new possibilities for expression. The Wisdom and Power of the Cross surveys both traditional approaches to soteriology and revisionist theologies that take up the challenge of the meaning of the cross today in light of critical historical studies and modern science, providing new understandings of traditional concepts like original sin and redemption. Through his in-depth exploration of the interweaving of aesthetic and conceptual theology, Viladesau once more deepens our understanding of the foremost symbol of Christianity and its role in salvation history.

Maurice Denis Albert Kostenevitch, 2016-02 French painter, decorator, and engraver. Maurice Denis (1870-1943) was the leader of the Nabi movement, who shook up the art world. Skilfully uniting religion and modernity, he was the pioneer and theoretician of the school of art which he named Nouveau traditionalisme, and he aspired to a modern art imprinted with Symbolist and mystical influences. Remember that a picture, before being a battle-horse, a nude, or some anecdote, is essentially a flat surface covered with colours assembled in a certain order. By this definition of his movement, he revolutionised modern art and cleared the way for abstract art to emerge.

Bonnard and the Nabis Albert Kostenevitch, 2012-05-08 Pierre Bonnard was the leader of a group of post-impressionist painters who called themselves the Nabis, from the Hebrew word meaning prophet. Bonnard, Vuillard, Roussel, and Denis, the most distinguished of the Nabis, revolutionized the spirit of decorative techniques during one of the richest periods in the history of French painting. Influenced by Odilon Redon and Puvis de Chavanne by popular imagery and Japanese etchings, this post-impressionist group was above all a close circle of friends who shared the same cultural background and interests. An increasing individualism in their art often threatened the group's unity, and although tied together by a common philosophy, their work clearly diverged. This publication lets us compare and put into perspective the artists within this fascinating group. The works presented in this collection offer a palette of extraordinary poetic expressions: candid in Bonnard, ornamental and mysterious in Vuillard, gently dream-like in Denis, grim and almost bitter in Vallotton. The author shares with us the lives of these artists to the very source of their creative gifts.

Maurice Denis, Earthly Paradise, 1870-1943 Maurice Denis, Maryline Assante di Panzillo, Musée d'Orsay, 2006 Maurice Denis 1870-1943 is perhaps the last great French painter of his generation awaiting rediscovery after his lifelong friends Pierre Bonnard and Edouard Vuillard With them Denis co-founded the Japanese influenced group known as the Nabis eventually becoming its principal theoretician In the 1890s he remained at the forefront of the movement and was also closely associated with Symbolism but his work was tremendously wide ranging in scope and style After 1900 his links with Matisse and Cézanne and his calls for a new classicism based on his love of Trecento and Quattrocento murals made him one of the most respected voices in European art Denis work ran the gamut of the visual arts from easel painting to engraving and the decorative arts after 1918 he worked increasingly on decorative projects in both religious and non religious contexts Reproducing many major works for the first time this thorough survey supplies a definitive volume on one of nineteenth century France's finest painters
