 temptations and challenges as other historians they negotiate assumptions their own and those of others about national identity and national character they decide what events and actors to highlight or omit and what framework and perspective to use for telling the story Personal biases trends in scholarship and sociopolitical contexts influence all histories and theatre histories too are often revised to reflect changing times and interests This significant collection examines the problems and challenges of formulating national theatre histories The essayists included here leading theatre scholars from all over the world many of whom wrote essays specifically for this volume provide an international context for national theatre histories as well as studies of individual nations They cover a wide geographical area Asia the Middle East Africa Europe and North America The essays contrast large countries India Indonesia with small Ireland newly independent Slovenia with established U S A developed Canada with developing Mexico South Africa capitalist U S A with formerly communist Russia monolingual Sweden with multilingual Belgium Canada and countries with stable historical boundaries Sweden with those whose borders have shifted Germany The essays also explore such sociopolitical issues as the polarization of language groups the importance of religion the invisibility of ethnic minorities the redrawing of geographical borders changes in ideology and the dismantling of colonial legacies Finally they examine such common problems of history writing as types of evidence periodization canonization styles of narrative and definitions of key terms Writing and Rewriting National Theatre Histories will be of special interest to students and scholars of theatre cultural studies and historiography
