dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years. Nonetheless, there has been little attempt to catalog this material. This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002. In doing so, it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature. The volume cites more than 2,750 short stories, novels, novel excerpts, and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American, Puerto Rican, Cuban American, Dominican American, and Nuyorican women authors. These citations are grouped in five indexes: an author title index, title author index, anthology index, novel index, and autobiography index. Short annotations are provided for the anthologies, novels, and autobiographies. Thus, the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author, the other works the author has written, and the anthologies in which the author's shorter pieces have been reprinted, along with information about particular works.

Teaching Evidence-Based Writing: Fiction Leslie Blauman, 2016-09-19. One in a million. Yes, that's how rare it is to have so many write about reading strategies so beautifully put to use. Each year, Leslie Blauman guides her students to become highly skilled at supporting their thinking about texts, and in Evidence Based Writing Fiction, she shares her win-win process. Leslie combed the ELA standards and all her favorite books and built a lesson structure you can use in two ways: with an entire text or with just the excerpts she's included in the book. Addressing Evidence, Character, Theme, Point of View, Visuals, Words, and Structure, each section includes lessons you can use as teacher demonstrations or for guided practice with Best the Test tips on how to authentically teach the skills that show up on exams with the texts you teach. Prompt Pages serve as handy references, giving students the key questions to ask themselves as they read any text and consider how an author's meaning and structure combine. Excerpts to Write About Pages feature carefully selected passages from novels, short stories, and picture books you already know and love, and questions that require students to discover a text's literal and deeper meanings. Write About Reading Templates scaffold students to think about a text efficiently by focusing on its critical literary elements or text structure demands and help them rehearse for more extensive responses. Writing Tasks invite students to transform their notes into a more developed paragraph or essay with sufficiently challenging tasks geared for grades 6-8. And best of all, your students gain a confidence in responding to complex texts and ideas that will serve them well in school, on tests, and in any situation when they are asked, "What are you basing that on?" "Show me how you know." The Reading Teacher's Book of Lists Jacqueline E. Kress, Edward B. Fry, 2015-09-25.
