Department of superintendence & research division, 1934 Sharing Our Success George Taylor Fulford, Helen Raham, Blair Stevenson, Tracey Wade, 2007 The eagle soaring against the dawning sun is perhaps a fitting symbol for the First Nation schools profiled in this volume Each school is creating a brighter future for its young people striving to equip them with the knowledge and the skills they need to succeed in both traditional and modern worlds The four case studies are part of a larger study examining schools that are producing tangible progress for Aboriginal learners The research was commissioned in 2006 by the Society for the Advancement of Excellence in Education SAE and made possible through grants from Indian and Northern Affairs Canada the Federal Interlocutor s Office the governments of Ontario Quebec and Nunavut and an anonymous Canadian foundation Leading Student Assessment Charles F. Webber, Judy L. Lupart, 2011-09-18 This book presents a new and refreshing look at student assessment from the perspective of leading educational theorists researchers and practitioners The authors call for boundary breaking assessment that reflects clear understandings of the purposes of assessment a balance of assessment creativity and realism the ability to detect solutions for assessment challenges and the capacity to question and imagine assessment alternatives The 14 chapters offer school and district educators policy makers researchers and university teacher preparation faculty with a comprehensive current overview of the state and art of student assessment Key questions are posed about assessment and critical challenges are presented along with sound evidence based solutions Student assessment is analyzed in terms of its relationship with classroom instructional practices and large scale testing programs Formative and summative assessments are compared and contrasted The role of psychological assessment in informing classroom practices is profiled along with the need for student voice in fair assessment practices

Readers will be challenged to consider the ecology of student assessment that is the impact of assessment in classrooms and schools through to the macro level of globalized societies The underpinning values and assumptions of student assessment are highlighted Finally a rationale is offered for reconceptualizing and redefining assessment The High School Journal,1921 Between Caring & Counting Lindsay Kerr,2006-01-01 One of the key planks of conservative Ontario premier Mike Harris s 1990s platform was education reform Amid a sea of official reports policy documents and expert opinions on education however the voices of actual classroom teachers were difficult to find This omission is redressed in Lindsay Kerr s*Between Caring Counting* Through a focus group of present day secondary school teachers in Toronto Kerr delivers a passionate account of the unassailably negative changes affecting secondary education and teachers work From a critical feminist perspective and using institutional ethnography Kerr situates the problem in education squarely as a conflict between an accounting logic and an ethic of care at the centre of education practice She exposes paradoxes inherent in education reform such as the increase of government control at the same time that government funding for education decreases She also connects educational restructuring to changes in the power relations of gender class and race across the public education system These local changes she finds do not reflect sound pedagogy but the imperatives of neoliberal globalization Counteracting despair with hope Kerr explores self reflexive suggestions for teacher educators to exercise agency in their lives and to continue to work toward a just and equitable public education system So You Think You Can Teach William M. Cockrum,Wendy W. Murawski,2018-08-31 This text provides a how to for presenting or teaching a class to an adult audience Learn how to create effective presentations build a syllabus and course outline and use established educational theory in practical situations Professionals already know their content but they need to also know how to impart that knowledge effectively This book does just that Developing Standards-Based Report Cards Thomas R.
