The High Profile Black Republican Candidacies of Lieutenant Governor Michael Steele, Secretary of State Kenneth Blackwell and Hall of Famer Lynn Swann James White, 2019-05-31 Specifically the purpose of this study is to evaluate the impact of three statewide black Republican candidacies in 2006 in Maryland Ohio and Pennsylvania During the 2006 midterm election cycle the Republican Party recruited and gave strong support to three high profile African American statewide candidates Secretary of State Kenneth Blackwell and former Pittsburgh Steelers star and television sports broadcaster Lynn Swann campaigned for their state s governorship in Ohio and Pennsylvania respectively Lieutenant Governor Michael Steele vied for a vacated United States Senate seat in Maryland After five decades of miserable levels of support from black voters and numerous initiatives to increase its share of the African American electorate the GOP estimated that credible black Republican candidacies would substantially improve its image among African American voters and thus garner a larger share of the black vote

State Representative James White

Model-Minority Imperialism Victor Bascara, At the beginning of the twentieth century soon after the conclusion of the Spanish American War the United States was an imperialistic nation maintaining often with the assistance of military force a far flung and growing empire After a long period of collective national amnesia regarding American colonialism in the Philippines and elsewhere scholars have resurrected the power of empire as a way of revealing American history and culture Focusing on the terms of Asian American assimilation and the rise of the model minority myth Victor Bascara examines the resurgence of empire as a tool for acknowledging and understanding the legacy of American imperialism Model Minority Imperialism links geopolitical dramas of twentieth century empire building with domestic controversies of U S racial order by examining the cultural politics of Asian Americans as they are revealed in fiction film and theatrical productions Tracing U S economic and political hegemony back to the beginning of the twentieth century through works by Jessica Hagedorn R Zamora Linmark and Sui Sin Far discourses of race economics and empire found in the speeches of William McKinley and William Jennings Bryan as well as L Frank Baum s The Wonderful Wizard of Oz and other texts Bascara s innovative readings uncover the repressed story of U S imperialism and unearth the demand that the present empire reckon with its past Bascara deploys the analytical approaches of both postcolonial studies and Asian American studies two fields that developed in parallel but have only begun to converge to reveal how the vocabulary of empire reasserted itself through some of the very people who inspired the U S imperialist mission Victor Bascara is assistant professor of English and Asian American studies at the University of Wisconsin Madison AAPT Announcer American Association of Physics Teachers,1987 American Journal of Physics ,1988 Grassroots Journalism Eesha Williams,2000 The Bellwomen Marjorie A. Stockford,2004 The Bellwomen recounts the history of this case in a novelistic style illuminating the motivations strengths and weaknesses of all the players from AT T corporate leaders to the lawyers of the EEOC to the female activists fighting for what they believed Stockford also profiles three beneficiaries of the case presenting their ambitions and achievements BOOK JACKET Epoch ,1887 Epic Encounters Melani McAlister,2005-07-05 Epic Encounters examines how popular culture has shaped the ways Americans define their interests in the Middle East In this innovative book now brought up to date to include 9 11 and the Iraq war Melani McAlister argues that U S foreign policy while grounded in material and military realities is also developed in a cultural context American understandings of the region are framed by narratives that draw on religious belief news media accounts and popular culture This remarkable and pathbreaking book skillfully weaves lively and accessible readings of film media and music with a rigorous analysis of U S foreign policy race politics and religious history The new chapter titled 9 11 and After Snapshots on the Road to Empire considers and brilliantly analyzes five images that have become iconic 1 New York City firemen raising the American flag out of the rubble of the World Trade Center 2 the televised image of Osama bin Laden 3 Afghani women in burqas 4 the statue of Saddam Hussein being toppled in Baghdad and 5 the hooded and wired prisoner in Abu Ghraib McAlister s singular achievement is to illuminate the contexts of these five images both at the time they were taken and as they relate to current events an accomplishment all the more remarkable since to paraphrase her new preface we are today struggling to look backward at something that is still rushing ahead The Personalist ,1959 The Collected Works of W.B. Yeats Volume XIII: A Vision William Butler Yeats,1989 Dr. William Smith's Dictionary of the Bible Sir William Smith,1877 Dictionary of the Bible William Smith,1872 Dictionary of the Bible: Gennesaret, Sea of, to Market William Smith,1872 "The" Illustrated London News ,1853
