

Structuring: Windows Chapter 2 "Accounting and Power Relations" - Managing Global Power

Administrative: administrative structure.

During your research, identify and explain how business organizations or other institutions are, if at all, in their structural organization or their formal, legal, cultural, economic, etc. administrative structure.

1. A business is a group of people who work together to produce goods or services. It is a legal entity that is separate from its owners and managers. It has a structure that defines how it operates and how it is managed. The structure of a business is determined by its legal form, its economic goals, and its cultural values. The structure of a business is also influenced by the power relations between its owners and managers. The structure of a business is a key factor in its success or failure.
