

Goodnight Mister Tom

Goodnight mister Tom is a historical fiction written by Michelle Magorian. It was published by puffin in 1981 and has 357 pages. Michelle Magorian won the guardian's literature prize amongst some other prizes for Goodnight Mister Tom, it is also known as a puffin classic . Goodnight Mister Tom was also made into a film in 1998. In the back of the book I found an 'extra extra read all about it' page which said that Michelle Magorian was looking at a thin, pale beech tree thinking what kind of person it may be. This is how she created William Beech, the main character. Mr Oakley also known as Mr Tom was inspired by an oak tree.

Goodnight Mister Tom is set in World War 2 it takes place in London and in a small country village called little weirwold. William Beech a shy, skinny boy is the main character.in the book his cruel mother, who often beats him with a belt, sends him off as an evacuee like many other children. His mother is very religious and insists that he is sent to a person who lives near a church. William is sent to an old widower called Mr Tom Oakely. When William first arrives in little weirwold he is terrified of everything he is bullied in school and often wets his bed at night. William's mother sends a letter to Mr Tom saying that William can be whipped by a belt if he is naughty Mr Tom is shocked and angered by this especially after seeing all the Bruises and bumps on William's body. The next day, at school Mr Tom finds that william cannot read or write and that he has a passion for art. William also makes his first friend an evacuee like himself called Zach Wrench. However, Zach is loud, confident and talks too much the opposite of William. On William's birthday he receives lots of presents from the people of the village, his favorite being the art apparatus he gets from Mr Tom. Over the next few weeks he makes friends with some local children; George a boy who loves animals and music; Ginnie is twins with Carrie, Ginnie likes sewing, cooking and other chores women would do and Carrie loves plants and she believes that women should have the same opportunities as men and she ends up going to a private girls school with a scholarship. William finds the war during which Britain was in the ascendant are perversely far more hazy in the public memory      Teaching History Creatively Hilary Cooper, 2012-12-12 Fresh and innovative Teaching History Creatively will foster creativity in both learners and practitioners alike By introducing teachers to a wealth of available approaches to historical enquiry this book ensures creative active and effective learning which includes plenty of challenges clear goals and opportunity for progression Underpinned by theory and research it offers informed and practical support illustrated throughout by examples of children's work Key themes addressed include how good history education and creativity are inseparable investigating sources archaeology visits and time capsules using archives in your own research project historical agents and history detectives drama for exploring events myths and legends communicating historical understanding creatively Written by experienced authors with extensive experience of history teaching in the primary school Teaching History Creatively is an essential purchase for any professional who wishes to embed creative approaches to teaching in their classroom      Talking Books James Carter, 2013-01-11 Talking Books sets out to show how some of the leading children's authors of the day respond to these and other similar questions The authors featured are Neil Ardley Ian Beck Helen Cresswell Gillian Cross Terry Deary Berlie Doherty Alan Durant Brian Moses Philip Pullman Celia Rees Norman Silver Jacqueline Wilson and Benjamin Zephaniah They discuss with great enthusiasm their childhood reading habits how they came to be published how they write on a daily basis how a particular book came together a type of writing that they are especially known for Through in depth interviews they each reveal their approach to their craft Much is known and spoken of the product that is the children's book but it is rare that writers are given the opportunity to talk at length about the process of writing for children Talking Books redresses the balance by presenting a wide selection of authors of fiction non fiction and poetry reflecting upon the joys and challenges of the craft creativity and process of writing for children      Writing in the Elementary Classroom Janet Evans, 2001 Writing in the Elementary Classroom considers writing development from many different angles creating a rich collage that focuses on how to help students develop into competent writers
