

READING FLUENCY

Read the passages below and count how long you take to read them!

The Wink!

The big day was here. Rosa was in the school orchestra and tonight was the winter concert. It was the first time she would play the piano in front of an audience.

Rosa was worried all day in school. When she got home she had butterflies in her stomach. She was still scared when she left for the concert. Rosa went backstage and peeked out from behind the curtain and watched her friend Sam play his horn. Sam never made a mistake. He looked fine. Then Rosa saw her parents in the third row. Her father caught her eye and winked. Suddenly, Rosa knew she could do it. She would pretend she was playing for just her mom and dad.

Rosa stepped onto the stage. She played her song well. When it was over, Rosa grinned. She winked at her parents and ran off the stage. Rosa's stage fright was over.

Instruction in the Third-grade Classroom Mary A. Olson, 2011 The purpose of this study was to determine if reading fluency practice passages should be at grade level or at their independent reading level The researcher conducted research in her third grade classroom The class was divided into two groups of mixed abilities one group read fluency passages at grade level and the other group read fluency passages at their independent reading level for a three week period After the three weeks students were interviewed about their reading experience and how they feel about their reading along with information gathered from their fluency and comprehension passages to see whether the students show an improvement in their reading fluency and comprehension ability I found that the majority of the students who practiced reading passages at their individual reading level made a gain in the number of words read per minute compared to those who practiced reading a third grade reading passage Fluency Passages Grade 6 Comprehension Questions Marcelina Laurence, 2024-12-11
