The Happy Prince & Other Tales Oscar Wilde,1888-05 The Happy Prince and Other Tales sometimes called The Happy Prince and Other Stories is a collection of stories for children by Oscar Wilde first published in May 1888 It contains five stories The Happy Prince The Nightingale and the Rose The Selfish Giant The Devoted Friend and The Remarkable Rocket In a town full of suffering poor people a swallow who was left behind after his flock flew off to Egypt for the winter meets the statue of the late Happy Prince who in reality has never experienced true sorrow for he lived in a palace where sorrow was not allowed to enter Viewing various scenes of people suffering in poverty from his tall monument the Happy Prince asks the swallow to take the ruby from his hilt the sapphires from his eyes and the gold leaf covering his body to give to the poor As the winter comes and the Happy Prince is stripped of all of his beauty his lead heart breaks when the swallow dies as a result of his selfless deeds and severe cold The people unaware of their good deeds take the statue down from the pillar due to its shabbiness intending to replace it with one of the Mayor and the metal melted in a furnace leaving behind the broken heart and the dead swallow they are thrown in a dust heap These are taken up to heaven by an angel that has deemed them the two most precious things in the city This is affirmed by God and they live forever in his city of gold and garden of paradise

The Happy Prince and Other Tales Annotated Oscar Wilde, 2020-12 The Happy Prince and Other Tales sometimes called The Happy Prince and Other Stories is a collection of stories for children by Oscar Wilde first published in May 1888 It contains five stories The Happy Prince The Nightingale and the Rose The Selfish Giant The Devoted Friend and The Remarkable Rocket In a town full of suffering poor people a swallow who was left behind after his flock flew off to Egypt for the winter meets the statue of the late Happy Prince who in reality has never experienced true sorrow for he lived in a palace where sorrow was not allowed to enter Viewing various scenes of people suffering in poverty from his tall monument the Happy Prince asks the swallow to take the ruby from his hilt the sapphires from his eyes and the gold leaf covering his body to give to the poor As the winter comes and the Happy Prince is stripped of all of his beauty his lead heart breaks when the swallow dies as a result of his selfless deeds and severe cold The people unaware of their good deeds take the statue down from the pillar due to its shabbiness intending to replace it with one of the Mayor and the metal melted in a furnace leaving behind the broken heart and the dead swallow they are thrown in a dust heap These are taken up to heaven by an Angel that has deemed them the two most precious things in the city This is affirmed by God and they live forever in His city of gold and garden of Paradise The Happy Prince High above a city stands an ornate statue of the Happy Prince recently deceased He oversees the town and is pained by the suffering of his people One night a Swallow who had not gone to Egypt with his flock for the winter because he was pursuing a beautiful Reed arrives in the city and rests on the Happy Prince s statue The Swallow notices the Prince is crying and the Prince explains that during his lifetime he had lived in a palace devoid of misery and therefore had never experienced sorrow Now though he can see the suffering of his people He then asks the Swallow to distribute the gemstones and gold leaf from his form to various families in need The Swallow loves the Prince and decides to stay By the time winter arrives though the Happy Prince is stripped of all his beauty while the Swallow dies of the harsh cold As a result the Happy Prince s lead heart breaks When the Mayor finds the statue in such a decrepit state he decides to take it down melt it and make an ornate statue of himself The lead heart and the dead swallow are discarded like they are nothing but when God tells an Angel to bring Him the two most precious things in the city the Angel brings him the dead bird and the lead heart The Selfish Giant When the Selfish Giant returns from a seven year visit with the Cornish Ogre he is furious to find twelve children playing in his beautiful garden Angered by their presence he builds a wall and puts up a notice saying TRESPASSERS WILL BE PROSECUTED This causes his property to fall into an undying winter no trees grow and spring and summer never come One day he is awakened by the sound of a bird He looks out his window and sees that the children have found a way back in which results in spring returning to the garden The sight inspires the giant to break down the wall but as soon as he steps out all but one of the children run away in fright He helps a small crying boy climb a tree and invites the other children back in announcing the garden is now theirs as well As the years pass by the children continue to come to play with the Giant but the small boy he had helped never returns breaking his heart One winter morning the now old and frail Giant sees the boy he once helped standing beneath a magnificent tree The boy bears a stigmata meaning he is Jesus Christ and comes to take the Giant to Paradise Later the other children find the Giant s corpse under tree covered in white blossoms
