Palestine in Late Antiquity Hagith Sivan, 2008-02-14 Hagith Sivan offers an unconventional study of one corner of the Roman Empire in late antiquity weaving around the theme of conflict strands of distinct histories and of peoples and places highlighting Palestine's polyethnicity and cultural topographical architectural and religious diversity During the period 300-650 CE the fortunes of the east and the west were intimately linked Thousands of westerners in the guise of pilgrims pious monks soldiers and civilians flocked to what became a Christian holy land This is the era that witnessed the transformation of Jerusalem from a sleepy Roman town built on the ruins of spectacular Herodian Jerusalem into an international centre of Christianity and ultimately into a centre of Islamic worship It was also a period of unparalleled prosperity for the frontier zones and a time when religious experts were actively engaged in guiding their communities while contesting each other's rights to the Bible and its interpretation

An Introduction to Late Antique Epigraphy in the Holy Land Leah Di Segni, 2022-08-12T00:00:00+02:00 The ethnic pluralism of the Holy Land is unparalleled elsewhere Whatever period of history or even of prehistory one chooses to consider the land due to its geographical position was always home to diverse ethnic groups and cultures and a capturer of influences from nearby and faraway countries The same pluralism accounts for an unparalleled coexistence of languages and scripts Greek and Latin Hebrew Jewish Christian and Samaritan Aramaic each with its own script pre-Islamic Arabic in Nabataean and Old Arabic scripts the occasional Syriac Palmyrene Armenian and Georgian inscriptions Sabaean and Thamudic graffiti in the eastern and southern fringes all are attested in late antique Holy Land sometimes influencing one another in vocabulary and formulas Still Greek is the prevailing vehicle of written communication from its first appearance in the region in the fourth century BCE to the end of Late Antiquity in the late eighth or early ninth century and it will draw most of the attention in these pages

Recueil de documents inédits concernant la Picardie Victor de Beauvillé, 1881 Palestiniens, Israéliens, la paix promise : le véritable dossier des négociations Omar Massalha, 1992-01-01T00:00:00+01:00 Pour la première fois ils se sont rencontrés Pour la première fois ils se parlent même s'ils ne dialoguent pas encore vraiment Palestiniens et Israéliens deux peuples pour une même terre trois fois sainte qui inscrivent l'un comme l'autre leur chemin dans une histoire plus que millénaire Les dominants d'aujourd'hui fondent la légitimité de leurs revendications sur les malheurs du passé tandis que les dominés ont bien du mal à se faire entendre nombreux restent ceux qui même chez les Arabes ne veulent voir en eux que des terroristes ou des réfugiés Pour parvenir à un accord il est temps de sortir du scepticisme ambiant et d'examiner concrètement les différents éléments du contentieux D'anthèmes en simplifications abusives de récits historiques en interprétations tendancieuses comment s'y retrouver en effet dans un conflit qui mêle de manière inextricable l'histoire des civilisations les symboliques religieuses notamment Jérusalem le droit international l'économie et la stratégie

Standing on Holy Ground in the Middle Ages Lucy Donkin,2022-02-15 Standing on Holy Ground in the Middle Ages illuminates how the floor surface shaped the ways in which people in medieval western Europe and beyond experienced sacred spaces The ground beneath our feet plays a crucial yet often overlooked role in our relationship with the environments we inhabit and the spaces with which we interact By focusing on this surface as a point of encounter Lucy Donkin positions it within a series of vertically stacked layers the earth itself permanent and temporary floor coverings and the bodies of the living above ground and the dead beneath providing new perspectives on how sacred space was defined and decorated including the veneration of holy footprints consecration ceremonies and the demarcation of certain places for particular activities Using a wide array of visual and textual sources Standing on Holy Ground in the Middle Ages also details ways in which interaction with this surface shaped people s identities whether as individuals office holders or members of religious communities Gestures such as trampling and prostration the repeated employment of specific locations and burial beneath particular people or actions used the surface to express likeness and difference From pilgrimage sites in the Holy Land to cathedrals abbeys and local parish churches across the Latin West Donkin frames the ground as a shared surface both a feature of diverse distant places and subject to a variety of uses over time while also offering a model for understanding spatial relationships in other periods regions and contexts
