Writing As Intermediary Korn, Lorenz , Metzler, Berenike, 2022-12-20 For the cultural history of the Islamic World writing has long been recognized as a highly important form of art as calligraphy has traditionally held a particular place in the perception of Islamic elites and their artistic practices The culture of calligraphy was intimately connected with the production of prestigious book manuscripts but reached a climax in the creation of single leaf calligraphies that were also highly appreciated by collectors in centres of Islamic culture from the Ottoman Mediterranean to post Timurid Central Asia Safavid Iran and Mughal India At the same time writing by its very nature fulfilled its age old functions of encoding verbal language as text The present volume approaches the variegated aspects of writing fathoming its ambiguous character between text and image It contains ten contributions that originated from a conference held at the University of Bamberg in 2019 These studies range from text image relations in precious manuscripts through the use of Chinese decorated paper for artistic book production the training of calligraphers and the process of design to the iconic character of writing in the layout of books single leaf works of calligraphy iconic writing in contemporary art to more theoretical considerations on aesthetic perception

The Familiar Essay, Romantic Affect and Metropolitan Culture Simon Peter Hull, 2018-06-11 Through close readings of diverse examples by Lamb De Quincey Hazlitt Irving and Poe this book argues that the familiar essay in the Romantic period embodies a quintessentially metropolitan mode of affect The generic traits of the essay astuteness of observation an ambulatory or paratactic movement of thought and an urbane tone of wry or ironic humour all predispose it to the expression of a detached non pathological state of mind This is a mind conditioned by the quickened pace assorted humanity and plenitude of spectacle which characterise urban and urbanised life In making a valuable genre based contribution to scholarship on the importance to Romantic studies of the city and metropolitan culture the traditional concept of Romantic affect is reassessed The book proposes a more complex and varied model than the simple binary one of a feeling reaction to Enlightenment reason Partly enacted within its own formal parameters and partly through its disruptive and genre transcending progeny the essayistic figure the familiar essay articulates a blithe and at times shocking and provocative discourse of an affect or a strategically and often satirical callousness Therefore the overall concept of affect in this period needs to be understood not as a unified entity opposed to Enlightenment reason but a dialogue between concurrent opposing modes played out against a dichotomized geo cultural landscape of the country and the city Essayistic un affect emerges in the end as an apolitical phenomenon a primary vehicle for the essayist s inherent scepticism sometimes enabling outright ridicule and at other times a tentative questioning or probing of both orthodox thought and emerging ideas from the rarefied liberalist sensibility of the Lake poets to the hubristic vanity of the colonial adventurer and from the allure of hedonistic Old World decadence to the proscriptive strictures of moralistic art
