The Faith and Practice of Al-Ghazali W. Montgomery Watt, Abu Hamid Muhammad ibn Muhammad al-Ghazali, 2020-09-10 Al Ghazali was one of the great Muslim theologians In this book the author provides a translation of some of his works including his spiritual autobiography Al Ghazali's description of his own emergence from scepticism anticipates the philosophical method of systematic doubt employed by Descartes Another work translated here sets out Al Ghazali's ideal of how a religious person should order his life from hour to hour and day to day

Al Ghazali on Islamic Guidance Imam Ghazali, 2023-08-16 In the 11th Century AD there was a significant deterioration in Muslim's belief and observance of the Shariah as a result of the evil influence of AlFarabi and IbnSina's Neoplatonic philosophy of Shia Batinism of false Sufis and evil religious scholars It was at this time of laxity in beliefs and practices that Abu Hamid Muhammad Al Ghazali D 505 Hijri flourished as a renewer Mujaddid of the deen and as one of the greatest intellectuals of Islamic history Well versed in almost all major intellectual disciplines of the time Al Ghazali refuted the prevailing false beliefs entirely and exposed the wrongness of existing practices As substitutes to these he presented a belief system following the Ashari Sunni tradition and a method of practices in the light of the Quran and the Sunnah Fiqh Sufism and his own thoughts and experiences This system of practices may be called Al Ghazali's theory of Islamic guidance an aspect of which is set forth in the Present work Guidance hidayat on the path to God and piety taqwa are emphasized in the Qur'an Al Ghazali d 1111 A D the greatest Muslim intellectual and sufi of all times teaches that these two Qur'anic ideals have a beginning and an end an outward aspect and an inward and that no one can reach the end except after completing the beginning What the beginning part is and how to acquire it are described in al Ghazali's book Bidayat al-Hidaya translated into English with introduction running commentary and notes by Prof Dr M A Quasem under the title Al Ghazali on Islamic Guidance In this book guidance is identified with piety The beginning of guidance or piety is described as 1 Proper performance of the acts of worship related to the body 2 Avoidance of sins 3 Observance of etiquettes of companionship with people These three requirements are discussed How the time from dawn to night and how the time between sunrise and midday should be passed by one seeking to achieve the beginning part of guidance or piety are suggested in the book What should be the correct motive of religious knowledge is also determined The book is like a valuable manual of daily life for a practising Muslim Advice from Imam Al-Ghazali Abu Hamid Al-Ghazali, 2023-10 The Faith and Practice of Al-Ghazālī Ghazzālī, William Montgomery Watt, 1982 Al Ghazali was one of the great Muslim theologians In this book the author provides a translation of some of his works including his spiritual autobiography Al Ghazali's description of his own emergence from scepticism anticipates the philosophical method of systematic doubt employed by Descartes Another work translated here sets out Al Ghazali's ideal of how a religious person should order his life from hour to hour and day to day Al-Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence Abu Hamid Al-Ghazali, 2019-06 Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence is the thirty fourth chapter of the Revival of the Religious Sciences Ihya Ulum al Din which is widely regarded as the greatest work of Muslim spirituality In Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence Abu Hamid al Ghazali considers two themes dear to Islamic devotional literature poverty and abstinence Taking as his example the Prophet's love for the poor Ghazali explains that poverty is not simply an accidental state of destitution that might befall anyone but rather an inner acceptance of the Will of God and a form of abstinence for His sake Thus the life of poverty described by Ghazali in Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence refers to what every devoted follower of the Prophet is meant to adopt whatever his or her outer state may be In this new edition the Islamic Texts Society has included the translation of Abu Hamid al Ghazali's own Introduction to the Revival of the Religious Sciences which gives the reasons that caused him to write the work the structure of the whole of the Revival and places each of the chapters in the context of the others Dear Beloved Son Abu Hamid al-Ghazali, 2022-03-13 Dear Beloved Son is an excellent compilation of extremely valuable pieces of advice based not only on theory but on the practical experience and insight of Imam al Ghazali Since he presented his disciple with these pieces of advice at a stage in life where he had studied and excelled in all major sciences of Islam it holds extra significance He covers topics such as sincerity knowledge action death da wah hypocrisy time dhikr and

Shari ah with delicacy and coherency so that one is able to grasp clearly the multidimensional facets of a comprehensive Islam

Deliverance from Error & Mystical Union with the Almighty Imam Ghazali, 2023-04-04 Abu Hamid Muhammad al Ghazali's Deliverance from Error and Attachment to the Lord of Might and Majesty successfully allows the reader a concise and informative window into the life of a great scholar. Deliverance from Error translated from the Arabic al Munqidh min ad Dalal by W Montgomery Watt is an autobiographical account of Ghazali's struggle during a period of spiritual unrest in his life that begins with him as a teacher at a prestigious academic institution at the age of thirty three continues through his ascetic wanderings and concludes upon his return to his teaching career but now as a complete God orientated man rather than a person on the plain of native and second hand belief. The book opens with Ghazali replying to a colleague who had questioned him regarding the aims and inmost nature of sciences and the perplexing depths of the religious systems and the reasons for Ghazali's actions at this stage of his life. He is an enquiring man who subjects all to his scrutinising eye. This habit and custom he describes as a God given nature a matter of temperament and not of my choice or contriving. With this outlook he starts to question the different types of knowledge around him. He systematically and diligently tackles each science which influences man's spiritual religious mindset covering the four main sciences of the time: theology, authoritative instruction, philosophy and mysticism, all of which continue to play significant roles today. The analysis is carried out in detail, unbiased and authoritatively as Ghazali studied and authored in most of the fields of his investigation. He dissects each science like a skilled surgeon and then delivers his post surgery evaluation with accuracy and precision. A passage which distils the essence of his spiritual journey can be found in Section 4 The Ways of Mysticism. I learnt with certainty that it is above all the mystics who walk on the road of God, their life is the best life, their method the soundest, their character the purest. Character indeed were the intellect of the intellectuals and the learning of the learned and the scholarship of the scholars who are versed in the profundities of revealed truth. Bought together in the attempt to improve the life and character of the mystics they would find no way of doing so for to the mystics all movement and all rest, whether external or internal, brings an illumination from the light of the lamp of prophetic revelation and behind the light of prophetic revelation there is no other light on the face of the earth from which illumination may be received. A chapter on the nature of Prophecy follows which highlights its compelling need. He discusses sensual and intellectual perceptions, their development in humans from simple to complex and they end where divine inspiration and revelation begin. The methodology used to explain this spectrum of perceptions is both simple and effective and allows the reader to follow the thought pattern of the author. A concluding chapter on Ghazali's return to teaching also tackles and in fact successfully deals with possible rebuttals of the hypothesis that he postulates on the need for prophetic leadership. As an expert in each of the fields, his replies to the various groups are from their own teachings, doctrines and methodology.
