Children and the Power of Stories Carmen Blyth,Teresa K. Aslanian,2022-03-04 This book explores how stretching stories through posthuman and autoethnographic perspectives can produce new stories that decolon ial ize traditional thinking and approaches to Early Childhood Education ECE It demonstrates how stories can provide a different way of knowing and a way of knowing differently a way of decolon ial izing current discourses of early childhood education within educational institutions The book uses research and practice in ECE to act as a canvas a context with which to explore how autoethnography can become other when viewed through a posthumanist lens As a consequence the chapters and stories within allow for an interplay between the posthumanist and the autoethnographic an interplay that allows for a very specific type of meaning to emerge a meaning that traffics in numerous and disruptive possibilities rather than settled certainties In so doing authors rethink and perturb the notion of child centered approaches to knowing be com ing and doing within the Early Childhood Education context Experiences of Second Language Teacher Education T. Wright,M.

Beaumont,2014-12-03 This book brings together the voices of teacher educators working in different national and educational settings It Covers themes such as change in teacher education practices the influences of context on practice and of interculturality to provide rich insights into the processes and effects of second language teacher education Teacher and Comrade Alan Wieder,2014-01-21 Teacher and Comrade explores South African resistance in the twentieth century before and during apartheid through the life of Richard Dudley a teacher politico who spent thirty nine years in the classroom and his entire life fighting for democracy Dudley has given his life to teaching and politics and touched and influenced many people who continue to work for democracy in South Africa and abroad Whether it was students comrades or opposition life was always teaching and relational for Dudley He challenged power throughout the apartheid era and his foundational beliefs in anti imperialism and nonracialism compel him to continue to talk teach and speak to power Through Dudley s story Teacher and Comrade provides a rare portrait of both Cape Town and South Africa as well as the struggle against racism and apartheid Australian National Bibliography ,1968 The Farmer's Weekly ,1938-12-21
