The Routledge Handbook of Male Sex Work, Culture, and Society John Geoffrey Scott, Christian Grov, Victor Minichiello, 2021-03-21 Panoramic and provocative in its scope this handbook is the definitive guide to contemporary issues associated with male sex work and a must read for those who study masculinities male sexuality sexual health and sexual cultures This groundbreaking volume will have a powerful impact on our understanding of this challenging elusive subject While the internet has brought the previously hidden worlds of male sex work more starkly into public view academic research has often remained locked into descriptions of male sex workers and their clients as perverse Drawing from a variety of regions the chapters provide insights into the historical popular cultural social and economic aspects of sex work as well as demographic patterns health outcomes and policy issues This approach shifts thought on male sex work from a hidden social problem to a publicly acknowledged social phenomenon The book challenges myths and reconceptualizes male sex work as a discrete field Importantly it provides a vehicle for the voices of male sex workers and new and established scholars This richly detailed humane and innovative collection retrieves male sex work from silence and invisibility on the one hand and its association with scandal and stigma on the other The findings within have profound implications for how governments approach public health and regulation of the sex industry and for how society can make sense of the complexities of human sexualities A compelling scholarly read and a major contribution to a commercial sector that is often neglected in policy debates on sex work this handbook will be of great interest to scholars of criminology sociology gender studies and cultural studies and all those interested in male sex work

Michelle Wang,Daniel Jernigan,Neil Murphy,2020-12-07 The Routledge Companion to Death and Literature seeks to understand the ways in which literature has engaged deeply with the ever evolving relationship humanity has with its ultimate demise It is the most comprehensive collection in this growing field of study and includes essays by Brian McHale Catherine Belling Ronald Schleifer Helen Swift and Ira Nadel as well as the work of a generation of younger scholars from around the globe who bring valuable transnational insights Encompassing a diverse range of mediums and genres including biography and autobiography documentary drama elegy film the novel and graphic novel opera picturebooks poetry television and more the contributors offer a dynamic mix of approaches that range from expansive perspectives on particular periods and genres to extended analyses of select case studies Essays are included from every major Western period including Classical Middle Ages Renaissance and so on right up to the contemporary This collection provides a telling demonstration of the myriad ways that humanity has learned to live with the inevitability of death where live with itself might mean any number of things from consoling to memorializing to rationalizing to fending off to evading and perhaps most compellingly of all to escaping Engagingly written and drawing on examples from around the world this volume is indispensable to both students and scholars working in the fields of medical humanities thanatology death studies life writing Victorian studies modernist studies narrative contemporary fiction popular culture and more

The Bloomsbury Handbook to the Medical-Environmental Humanities Scott Slovic,Swarnalatha Rangarajan,Vidya Sarveswaran,2022-07-28 Bringing together two parallel and occasionally intersecting disciplines the environmental and medical humanities this field defining handbook reveals our ecological predicament to be a simultaneous threat to human health The book Represents the first collection to bring the environmental humanities and medical humanities into conversation in a systematic way Features contributions from a wide range of interdisciplinary perspectives including literary studies environmental ethics and philosophy cultural history and sociology Adopts a truly global approach examining contexts including but not limited to North America the UK Africa Latin America South Asia Turkey and East Asia Touches on issues and approaches such as narrative medicine ecoprecarity toxicity mental health and contaminated environments Showcasing and surveying a rich spectrum of issues and methodologies this book looks not only at where research currently is at the intersection of these two important fields but also at where it is going No Straight Lines Justin Hall, 2013-08-03

No Straight Lines showcases major names such as Alison Bechdel Howard Cruse and Ralf Koenig one of Europe's most popular cartoonists as well as high profile crossover creators who have dabbled in LGBT cartooning like legendary NYC artist David Wojnarowicz and media darling and advice columnist Dan Savage No Straight Lines also spotlights many talented creators who never made it out of the queer comics ghetto but produced amazing work that deserves wider attention Queer cartooning encompasses some of the best and most interesting comics of the last four decades with creators tackling complex issues of identity and a changing society with intelligence humor and imagination This book celebrates this vibrant artistic underground by gathering together a collection of excellent stories that can be enjoyed by all Until recently queer cartooning existed in a parallel universe to the rest of comics appearing only in gay newspapers and gay bookstores and not in comic book stores mainstream bookstores or newspapers The insular nature of the world of queer cartooning however created a fascinating artistic scene LGBT comics have been an uncensored internal conversation within the queer community and thus provide a unique window into the hopes fears and fantasies of queer people for the last four decades These comics have forged their aesthetics from the influences of underground comix gay erotic art punk zines and the biting commentaries of drag queens bull dykes and other marginalized queers They have analyzed their own communities and their relationship with the broader society They are smart funny and profound No Straight Lines has been heralded by people interested in comics history and people invested in LGBT culture will embrace it as a unique and invaluable collection New Art Examiner, 1996 The independent voice of the visual arts

Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature Christine A. Jenkins, Michael Cart, 2018-03-20 Discussions of gender and sexuality have become part of mainstream conversations and are being reflected in the work of more and more writers of fiction particularly in literature aimed at young adult audiences But young readers regardless of their sexual orientation don't always know what books offer well rounded portrayals of queer characters and situations Fortunately finding positive role models in fiction that features LGBTQ themes has become less problematic though not without its challenges In Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature LGBTQ Content since 1969 Christine Jenkins and Michael Cart provide an overview of the literary landscape An expanded version of The Heart Has Its Reasons this volume charts the evolution of YA literature that features characters and themes which resonate not only with LGBTQ readers but with their allies as well In this resource Jenkins and Cart identify titles that are notable either for their excellence accurate thoughtful and tactful depictions or deficiencies books that are wrongheaded stereotypical or outdated Each chapter has been significantly updated and this edition also includes new chapters on bisexual transgender and intersex issues and characters as well as chapters on comics graphic novels and works of nonfiction This book also features an annotated bibliography and a number of author title lists of books discussed in the text that will aid teachers librarians parents and teen readers Encompassing a wider array of sexual identities Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature is an invaluable resource for young people eager to read about books relevant to them and their lives

Cases of citation Chloë Julius, Michael Green, Matthew Holman, 2024-09-24 Cases of citation presents a history of artists who incorporated literary references into their work from the 1960s onwards Through a series of object focused chapters that each take up a singular case of citation the collection considers how literary citation emerged as a viable and urgent strategy for artists during this period It surveys nine artworks by a diverse group of artists including David Wojnarowicz Lis Rhodes Romare Bearden and Silvia Kolbowski whose citations draw on literary works with authors ranging from Gertrude Stein to Jean Genet The book also features an interview with pioneering feminist artist Elaine Reichek that discusses her career long commitment to working with text Together the artworks and cited texts are approached from various critical angles with each author questioning and complicating the ways in which we can read textual citations in art Creating

Autobiography Oliver Lovesey, 2021-12-02 The 1960s saw the nexus of the revolution in popular music by a post war generation amid demographic upheavals and seismic shifts in technology Over the past two decades musicians associated with this period have produced a large amount of important autobiographical writing This book situates these works in the forms of formal autobiographies and memoirs auto fiction songs and self fashioned museum exhibitions within the context of the recent expansion of interest in autobiography disability and celebrity studies It argues that these writings express anxiety over musical originality and authenticity and seeks to dispel their writers celebrity status and particularly the association with a lack of seriousness These works often constitute a meditation on the nature of postmodern fame within a celebrity obsessed culture and paradoxically they aim to regain the private self in a public forum
