Parts of the Plan

Lesson Part	Planning	Description
Introduction	Planned Prior to the Lesson	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Clear, concise, and powerful. It is kept short because it's mostly the teacher working. <input type="checkbox"/> The students should know the big idea of the text and how it works (structure). <input type="checkbox"/> Picture Walk or Book Tour <input type="checkbox"/> Pick one or two, if any, vocabulary words. Limit the words that tie into the big idea. Giving away all the words will not give you the opportunity to see how a student struggles to work or sound out an unknown word.
Reading the Text		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> No Round Robin Reading. <input type="checkbox"/> List to word solving skills, fluency, and comprehension of individual students. <input type="checkbox"/> Word solving skills include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Meaning: Does what I read make sense? - Visual: Does what I read match the letters that written? - Structure: Does what I read sound like English? <input type="checkbox"/> Write down observations made for each student.
Discuss the Meaning	Planned Prior to the Lesson	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Think about and write higher order questions to ask. <input type="checkbox"/> Students share their thinking.
Teaching for Processing Strategies		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Discuss anything that was noticed while reading during this time. <input type="checkbox"/> Varies based on the instructional reading level of the group.
Word Work (Levels A-Y)	Planned Prior to the Lesson	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Does not have to be based on words found in the text. <input type="checkbox"/> Students are shown how words work, not how a word works.

Barclay, Laura Stewart, Deborah M. Lee, 2014-02-20 Your resource for best texts and best practices. Kathy Barclay and Laura Stewart have written the book that teachers like you have been pleading for: a resource that delivers the what I need to know to engage kids in a significant amount of informational text reading experiences. No filler, no lofty ideals about college and career readiness, but instead the information on how to find lesson worthy texts and create developmentally appropriate instructional plans that truly help young readers comprehend grade level texts. What you'll love most: The how to's on selecting informational texts, High impact comprehension strategies, Model text lessons and lesson plan templates, An annotated list of 449 informational texts. Teaching Reading Across the Day, Grades K-8 Jennifer Serravallo, 2024-04-12 Reading well across disciplines and within varied contexts will help students to be versatile, flexible, deep readers who can better learn from their reading, transfer skills across subjects, and use strategies to meet the unique demands of reading in each content area. Jennifer Serravallo Research based, easy to use lesson structures for explicit and engaging teaching. In Teaching Reading Across the Day, literacy expert Jennifer Serravallo provides nine effective, predictable, research based lesson structures that help busy teachers save planning time and focus their teaching and student attention on content rather than procedures. Each of the nine lesson structures: read aloud, phonics and spelling, vocabulary focus, shared reading, close reading, guided inquiry, reader's theater, and conversation, has its own chapter and features a wealth of resources that let you see the lessons in action in ELA, Science, and Social Studies classes, including an annotated teaching vignette, lesson explanation, and research notes. Tips for planning, structure, and timing suggestions, and ideas for responsive teaching Detailed planning templates and 22 accompanying online videos covering over 3 hours of classroom footage Jen s reflections key look fors and ideas for next steps The nine lesson structures can be used with any curriculum or core program text and subject making it easier for teachers to maximize explicit and engaging teaching time across the day and simplify planning and preparation Jen incorporates a wide range of compelling research about how best to teach reading to every student in your class and translates the research or the science of teaching reading into high leverage moves you can count on to deliver powerful lessons again and again She also honors the art of teaching reading helping teachers tap into their experience and hone their expertise to make quick effective classroom decisions that take student learning to the next level

Constructing Strong Foundations of Early Literacy Malinda E. Jones, Ann E. Christensen, 2022-08-31 This text provides a comprehensive understanding of the foundational literacy knowledge skills behaviors and attitudes necessary to guide emerging readers and writers in early childhood Centered on the critical question of why some children learn to read easily while others do not this text walks readers through developmentally appropriate goal setting based on the foundational literacy skills that are critical for preschool and kindergarten children to develop. Written in an authoritative yet accessible style, chapters offer instructional strategies, insights, and scenarios from educators' self-reflection and a variety of methods for implementation. Each chapter also includes differentiation for children with language and learning challenges, as well as dual language learners exploring methods for valuing the home language while building critical literacy skills in the classroom. Providing critical skills for guiding all emerging readers to an independent reading level, this is an essential resource for both students in early childhood literacy and special education courses and educators in early childhood public education, non-profit preschool settings such as Head Start, home and daycare settings, and private and corporate care and education centers.
